Collegiate "Who's Who" Lists 41 from GSU

Forty-one students from GSU are included in the 1982-83 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," according to Dr. Frank Borelli, dean of student affairs and services.

The students were nominated by the University on the basis of recommendations from faculty members and administrative officials and on their academic achievement, student activities and community service. The group accurately reflects the region served by the University, representing Chicago and 25 southern suburban communities. This year, for the first time, an out-of-state student — from Ohio — was included in the GSU listing.

Each year since 1934, the reference book has listed outstanding college and university students from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations. This year, the GSU students are among young men and women from some 1300 to 1400 colleges and universities who are recognized as leaders on their campuses.

GSU students selected for the 1982-83 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" are:

Bourbonnais: Patricia L. Bryant; Bolingbrook: Lawrence Knippen; Calumet City: David J. Jackowski and Machteld Tims; Chicago: Rosetta Vasquez; Chicago Heights: Jane S. Parker, Ronald Smith and Marla Taylor; Country Club Hills: Joan V. Kauder, Margaret Seelym and Ambid Tolly; Homewood: Marilyn P. Bogash, Robert M. Jostes, Santwana Roychoudhuri and Darlene J. Vankus.

Kankakee: Judy Markham; Lansing: Michele Szary; Lynwood: Kathleen J. Selenik; Matteson: Patsy Ruchala; Mokena: Susan K. Wysock; New Lenox: Loreen K. Vietoris; Oak Forest: Ellen Noring Gentleman; Oak Lawn: Margaret Bryant and Lee Burkland;

Olympia Fields: Colleen K. Wehr; Orland Park: Charlene M. Schultz.

Palos Heights: Pamela J. Ponton; Park Forest: Julie Fletcher, James R. Rudolf and Kathryn M. Synol; Park Forest South: Lelia A. Kista; Richton Park: Patricia J. Zurga; Riverdale: William C. Vanderbok; Roselle: John King; St. Anne: Brenda S. Horrell; Sauk Village: James R. Holliday and Sherry Haggard; Tinley Park: Jan Lechner, Della Rush and Corasue Upchurch; Athens, Ohio: Janice Hinkle.

Beeton Leaves to Assume New Post

Dr. Beverly Beeton, GSU's associate provost/associate vice president for academic affairs since 1981 leaves January 14 to assume her new duties as vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Alaska at Juneau.

Beeton has been at GSU since 1978, when she was appointed executive assistant to the president. She formerly served as assistant to the vice president for academic affairs at the University of Utah. She received her B.S. in history and English at Weber State College and the Ph.D. in history at University of Utah.
Bassist Rufus Reid to Lead Jazz Clinic

Rufus Reid, jazz player, trumpeter and bassist, and the "Expedition" jazz quartet will conduct a three-day jazz workshop/clinic on January 18-20 at GSU and surrounding high schools.

The highlight of the workshop will be a concert by Expedition with the GSU Jazz Ensemble, directed by Ken Chaney, community professor of jazz, in the GSU Music Recital Hall. The public is invited free to all sessions.

On Tuesday, January 18, the group will visit various area high schools to conduct clinics. On Wednesday, they will hold tap sessions and rehearsal arrangements for auditions by calling Strukoff at the University at (312) 534-5000, extension 2454.

GSU Community Chorale Rehearsals Begin January 17

Singers who would like to join the GSU Community Chorale for a spring performance of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" are invited to attend rehearsals starting January 17 at 8 pm in the GSU Music Recital Hall.

Rudolf Strukoff, CAS, director of the Chorale and university professor of music, says that singers for all sections of the choir are needed, but especially issues a call for tenors and basses. There are no auditions for the volunteer group, but some experience is required.

The concert is scheduled for April 24 at 4 pm at GSU. Soloists include two sopranos and one tenor, who may arrange for auditions at (312) 534-5000, extension 2454.

Musical scores will be provided for Chorale members by GSU. Rehearsals are every Monday evening from 8 to 10 pm.

NEW CAMPUS SIGNAGE AND ROOM NUMBERING

Beginning with the Winter 1983 Trimester, the individual wings of the main building, offices, and classrooms will have new letters and room numbers. To locate your classroom, first note the letter designation (A-F) which indicates the wing of the building. The wings and rooms contained therein are color coded to help identify their location: A-red, B-orange, C-yellow, D-green, E-blue, and F-purple. The first numeral indicates the floor and the remaining numerals the room number. For example, D2105 would be in D Wing (green background on signage) on the second floor.

The outline of the main building below indicates the location of the individual wings. Detailed floor maps indicating the location of classrooms are attached.

GSU Goes to Dinner

GSU faculty and staff gathered at Mr. Benny’s restaurant for an evening of food, fellowship and fun Friday, December 10. The dinner and get-together, initiated by Provost David Curtis and Bethany Harms, BO, featured an entertaining after dinner program, with Mel Muchnik, CAS, as emcee, assisted by Frank Borelli, SAS. Also participating was Dave Curtis as spotlight technician, although several surprised and blinded people in the audience concluded he was better at provosting.

The plot of the series of skits — when it could be found — concerned the orientation of a new student, played by Linda Jones, SHP, to the complexities of life at GSU. Jay Lubinsky, SHP, was cast in the role of her advisor, while Bill Dodd, UR, followed her exits and entrances singing praises of the University on his violin.

Linda, wide eyed and with silvery antennae bouncing on her head, pursued her quest for a degree first in BPA, where she encountered another GSU innovation: A BPA Faculty Recital featuring Paul Green, who whistled a tune that more or less resembled “Heartaches.” Following this edifying interlude, and again accompanied by Bill and his magic violin, Linda wandered into Special Programs, where Felix Haynes exhorted a team composed of Polly Bernd, Chris Cochrane, Peg Donohue, Sharon Green, Don Hansen, Joyce Newman, and Mark Payne to greater efforts, telling them that they had to get 7,000 students in three days. The SP team, with their usual enthusiasm, and sporting blue t-shirts, their names emblazoned on them in shocking pink, scrabbled for programs to attract hopefully qualified students. With lots of the old rah-rah spirit and a certain amount of suspense they came up one student short and had to scrape the bottom of the box, thus SP saved the day.

The climax of the evening, however, was the awarding of “Leos” to deserving recipients. Among them: Felix Haynes, who received the Significant Height Award; Bob Milam, BPA Dean Ahead of His Time, Don Hansen, Special Recruitment Award, Ed Surjan, for Patience and Ingenuity Under Fire While Repairing Copy Machines, and Jay Kahn, who received the Ouija Board Award for his predictions of the future. Other recipients were Jordan Tsolakides, Mike Foley, Chet Mallory, Addison Woodward and Jay Lubinsky.

The major award, saved for the last, was presented to Bill Dodd. A five-foot high construction conceived by ICC Graphics, which also did all props for the skits, the “Grand Leo” marked the work Bill has done as curator of the Nathan Manllow Sculpture Park. This was such a monumental award that the mere contemplation of it broke up the gathering and everyone left in a state of, If not admiration, certainly amusement, vowing that they should meet again next year for similar hilarity.
