Dr. Charles E. Gavin

The late Dr. Gavin was awarded the “Outstanding Citizen Award” by the Chicago Heights Human Relations Commission for his dedication and humanitarian efforts. He provided medical services to all those in need without regard to race, ethnic background, or economic condition.

As an orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Gavin was instrumental in developing the outstanding orthopedic department at St. James Hospital in Chicago Heights.

After growing up in Chicago Heights and serving in the Army, he was graduated from the University of Illinois, received a master’s degree in biochemistry from the University of Chicago, and was graduated from the University of Illinois Medical school. He interned at Cook County and Illinois Research and Education hospitals, and subsequently was chief resident at Illinois Research and Education hospital. He served on the staffs of Presbyterian-St. Luke’s and Louise Burg hospitals.

In order to emphasize, preserve, and perpetuate the type of love, hope and inspiration which he provided for so many, the Dr. Charles E. Gavin Memorial Foundation was established in 1971. Scholars selected on the basis of the students’ present involvements and commitments to the Gavin philosophy of selfless service and productivity receive Gavin scholarships to Governors State University.

Louis “Studs” Terkel

Best known as the author of many best-selling oral histories and host of the WFMT Studs Show of Chicago, Studs Terkel has had a variegated career. He has been a radio and stage actor, sports columnist, disc jockey, playwright, journalist, lecturer, and host of music festivals. Terkel’s work in the mass media has brought him several awards: among them “first award” from Ohio State University in 1959 for his radio show Wax Museum, which was rated the finest cultural program in the regional category; the UNESCO East-West Values award in 1962 for best radio program; the Prix Italiana; and the Communicator of the Year award from the University of Chicago Alumni Association in 1969.

As a writer engaged in social research, Mr. Terkel uses the tape recorder to elicit the authentic feelings of the person he interviews, carefully editing the material to retain the essence of his subjects. He is now preparing an oral history on the achievement and loss of power of the individual. Books to his credit include Working (1974), Hard Times: An Oral History of the Great Depression (1970), and Division Street: America (1966).

Born in New York, Mr. Terkel was educated in Chicago and has lived most of his life in this area. He received his Ph. B. and J.D. degrees from the University of Chicago.
