“We invite all in the GSU community to join us for a free screening of GENDER REVOLUTION: A Journey with Katie Couric, produced by National Geographic” said Jason Zingsheim, Associate Professor of Communication and Coordinator of the GNSX Program. “In this documentary, Katie Couric explores the changing role of gender in our society by presenting material that is at once deeply personal and simultaneously radically public. The documentary will challenge what we think we know about gender and investigates the evolving science and language around gender. It also provides a window into the diversity of gendered experiences and highlights strategies for increasing equality,” Jason offered. A discussion and Q & A will follow the screening. The schedule can be found below:

4:30 Screening
