and check the lunch menu - in short, you'll be able to find it out and get it done right from your desktop. Neat stuff, but you can't do all of those things just yet. The intranet is still a work in progress, but log on now, use it, and watch it grow. One caveat: For now, the intranet can only be accessed from a GSU account on a faculty or staff on-campus computer.

Civil Service Senate Scholarship
The Civil Service Senate is now taking applications for the FY05 GSU Civil Service Scholarship. All GSU civil service employees and their dependent children are eligible for the scholarship if they're enrolled in a college or university for a minimum of 6 credit hours for the fall 2004 term. One scholarship will be awarded for the fall. If the recipient is a civil service employee, the scholarship will be for $300. If it is for a dependent child, the amount of the scholarship will be $500. To apply, contact Lillian Jung at Extension 5305.

Smart Hours at Smart Care
The Family Development Center’s childcare service, Smart Care, is extending its hours starting September 7. The new hours are 7 a.m. to 10:45 p.m. Monday - Thursday and 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Fridays. "We're trying the later hours to see if we can be of benefit to the students," said Cheryl Poulos, interim coordinator of the FDC. "We're also opening earlier to accommodate the working parents." Currently, children must be potty-trained and between ages 3 and 12; however, Poulos said there is a developing plan to open a Birth to Three Smart Care soon. More...
