GSU ELECTED TO UNION FOR EXPERIMENTING COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES... as its 30th member. The prestigious group, based in Yellow Springs, Ohio, includes among others University of Wisconsin at Green Bay, Antioch, University of Massachusetts, Morgan State and two other BOG schools—Northeastern and Chicago State. The Union Graduate School's doctoral programs have received national recognition. The Union shares and assists development of innovative and experimenting program ideas. Its doctoral program is a university without walls. Member institutions frequently work together on such projects as alternative degree efforts, the financing of higher education, faculty renewal, broadly based interdisciplinary programs and programs designed to prepare faculty for new kinds of teaching roles.

IC EXTENSION... latest report on progress on the extension of the Illinois Central-Gulf to GSU came at a reception and briefing for the Industrial Park of PFS in early June. According to the Director for Commuter Services for the railroad, Paul R. Oppenheim, "tentative plans call for commuter services to begin before the end of 1975." Included is the construction of a new GSU station. The two mile extension and the new station will cost $2,240,000 of which the state and federal government will pay $1,941,000, the railroad $275,000 and GSU $24,000. The commitment of the railroad to extend its commuter line was one of the major reasons for locating the University in Park Forest South. Already ticket vending machines in the Randolph Street Station downtown list the end of the line as "Governors State University" in zone 7.

GRADUATION... The 400 who graduated Sunday (June 30) join 650 previous GSU grads. Chicago residents lead the way in the current crop with 125 graduating, with Park Forest represented by 42, Chicago Heights 22 and Joliet 21. In all, 72 communities are represented in the graduating group.

GRADUATION FAMILIES... Celia-Ann Toll (A & R) was one of three Tolls receiving assorted degrees this month (one daughter graduated Rich East, another Prairie State and Celia, a BOG student at GSU)... Dorothy Swartout (CHLD M.A.) COMM. SCI., was one of four in her family graduating in June with three sons joining the festivities, one in junior high, one in high school and one at Knox College... THE ROAD TO RECOVERY...Out of the hospital with various assorted ailments are BOBBY MILLS (CCS), AL MARTIN (AA), PAUL WATSON (ICC), RAY BENN (DPS) and ESTHEL ALLEN (PO). All but Bobby and Al are back on the job. The most seriously ill, Bobby Mills, spent a couple of weeks in intensive care at the hospital following surgery on his pancreas. He is now home and reported well on the road to recovery.

THE WHITE HOUSE TRANSCRIPTS....will be used as a text by HUGH RANK (CCS) in a learning module during J/A dealing with propaganda techniques. "President Nixon wanted all Americans to read the White House transcripts and make their own judgments, and this we will do," said the Prof. who happens to chair the NCTE's Committee on Public Doublespeak.

LEARNING MODULE FIRST...two graduate students from two different colleges will collaborate for July/August session in offering what AL SHERMAN, CCS Dean and Module Advisor, calls a "truly interdisciplinary step." CORLISS MUSE (CCS Grad Student) and PAULETTE JONES (CHLD Grad Student) will work together on "Black Theater and Black Values.”

FAZE I WIT...A student goes in the library and asks a reference question. The librarian punches a computer button and hands the student a 50-foot print-out that lists all the learning resources on a subject..."What do you think? How shall I proceed? Give me the benefit of your experience in relation to my problem" And the gentle, all-wise, all-knowing, library soul hurriedly punches a button on the computer marked HOW TO BE AN EFFECTIVE TEACHER.. Submitted by TONY WEI (LRC/CCS)

HEY...IT'S FIVE YEARS OLD...GSU will have it: five year birthday on July 17. On that date five years ago, GOVERNOR OGILVIE signed the bills creating GSU. We haven't heard of any scheduled birthday parties, but...

DROP INS DROP OUT...for a while. The Sunday evening Drop-In will take a vacation until further notice, according to DAVE CRISPIN (CHLD), TULSI SARAL and DAVE CRISPIN (both CHLD) are the designer for this series, the longest series of any kind at GSU.

GSU AND THE MONEE CENTENNIAL...GSUers were in evidence in various ways during the 100th birthday of GSU's neighboring community. At the centennial parade June 15, BILL ENGEBRETSON (PRES) represented GSU on the reviewing stand and returned the next day when GOV. WALKER became the first incumbent Governor to visit town. LEONA ERICKSON (LRC) worked on the Monee Centennial Committee, GLEN CLAUS (BUS. OFF.) in the parade with the Crete Township Volunteer Fire Dept. truck and LINDA HOFF (ICC) on an 1873 school bus.

PHASE I RAMBLINGS...Among the quotable observations about Phase I is the description of DON DOUGLAS (CEAS) who describes the architecture of the building as "Early Maginot." Others noting its continuing construction, have dubbed it the "Edifice Rex" although "Rex" is sometimes misspelled a "W."
OVERDUE MATERIALS...The LRC is experiencing an increased demand for its resources. Some students and faculty have failed to respond to requests for the return of overdue items. Patrons who have not returned books or other items to the LRC after an overdue notice has been sent will receive a "Lost Materials Assessment" statement to cover the cost of replacing the item in the library. Students who fail to pay for the list items from the collection will not be able to register for future modules and their transcripts will not be issued.

CCS DEAN'S AWARD...for Intellectual Excellence, 1974, went to the following:

1st Place: ROBERT RANIERI, "Curriculum Change in English"-$100 award.
2nd Place: MARGARET KELLER, "Mythic Time & The Ghost Dance"-$75 award.
3rd Place: MOSES DELE ADEOLA, "The Organization of African Unity"-$50 award.

CONDOLENCES...to DICK STRUTHERS whose father-in-law, Mr. DON CARR, of Ames, Iowa died June 22 following a lengthy illness. Mrs. Carr requested that instead of flowers, contributions be made to the Cobalt Fund, c/o Mrs. Lois Carr, 619 Eighth St., Ames, Iowa, 50010.

RUNAWAY TRAYS...The relatively new dining service has a new problem. Its bright yellow trays are walking away from the Commons. Please return any trays you may have or see as you move through the building.

PAPERBACK EXCHANGE...The LRC is asking for contributions of paperback books to replenish the exchange rack. Special contributions of as many books as possible are sought. The "bring one-take one" principle on the exchange rack has become inoperative so that the rack is almost empty. Donors are requested to leave contributions at the LRC Circulation Desk. When enough books come in, the exchange service will be started up again.

CHANGING SCENE...GORDON COCHRANE, CBPS Asst. Dean, departs GSU Sept. 1 to practice law with the Park Forest law firm of Bader and Roth. Gordon joined GSU in 1971. His J.D. degree is from the University of Iowa where he was on the Board of Editors of the Iowa Law Review...also departing GSU is Communications Assistant FRANK JACKSON, CHLD Grad Student, one-time community professor, to join Channel 32 as its Director of Public Affairs.

GRANTS RECEIVED...by GSU are reflected on the R & I status board which, for the first time lists more grants received than grant proposals pending. Recent grants include $28,000 for cooperative education to employ persons and evolve a model for the use of sub-professional personnel, and to build computer capability to match student needs and employer needs. DIXON BUSH (COOP ED) is the project director. Also received from the U.S.O.E. was $33,000 for the development of environmental education leadership personnel for secondary school districts. JIM GALLAGHER (CEAS) will direct the project which also has matching state funds.
