FOCUS ON WOMEN

A WOMEN IN SOCIETY...Workshop will be offered at the Chicago Heights Public Library by GSU Feb. 3, 10, 17, and 24 from 1:15 to 3 p.m. Workshop coordinator is Harriet Gross (CCS). Designed for women who want to know their own role and relationship to events of the women's movement and women's rights, the workshop may be taken on a credit or non-credit basis.

"Women in Society" will deal with the meaning and impact of the women's movement and the rapidly expanding curricula in "women's studies." To take the workshop for one unit credit, apply thru GSU's office of A&R (total fees $35.75); for non-credit, a $10 fee plus a letter of Intent to enroll in the workshop on a non-credit basis is required. For more info, call Harriet at ext. 2428, or 747-8885.

BACK TO SCHOOL, BACK TO WORK...is the title of a film to be shown at the Women's Resource Center's monthly brown bag lunch-view, Wed., Feb. 4, in the CCS Lounge, 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

CREATIVE CAREER/LIFE PLANNING...for women will be offered by the South Suburban Area YWCA beginning March 9. The 12-week course will be taught by ELAINE STRAUSS (CE) who holds a B.A. degree from the U of Wis., an M.A. from GSU, and is a Ph.D. candidate in Cooperative Education-Higher Education Administration at Northeastern Univ., Boston. She is also a consulting member of Forest View Associates, a firm specializing in life/people engineering. The workshop, designed for women who have had no formal education in the past five or more years, will answer four basic questions:

1. Who am I in the world of work?
2. What are the realities of the world of work?
3. What do I want to accomplish in my life/work?
4. How do I plan to accomplish it?

Registrants will be selected following a personal interview with Ms. Strauss. For reservations for the workshop call the PF YWCA office, 748-5660 before Feb. 24. Interviews with Ms. Strauss will be scheduled on Feb. 24 and 25. The $30 fee includes 3 books used for the workshop.

"THREE WOMEN" will be presented in a one-night benefit performance at Temple Anshe Sholom Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. Tickets for the YWCA presentation are $5 and $10, available from Barb McDonough, ext. 2314.
How to enroll for second
Bicentennial course

THE SECOND part of the American Issues Forum course by newspaper will start Jan. 31 in The Tribune. By taking part in this series, readers will have the opportunity to earn college credit from two area schools.

The series, which will run for 18 consecutive Saturdays on the Perspective page, was written with the Bicentennial as a focus.

The articles will explore such contemporary issues as the changing face of labor, America's mixed economy, the U.S. role in the world, and high culture versus popular culture.

PERSONS NEED not have taken the first course to sign up for the second.

Six scholar-authors wrote the articles for the course which was designed at the University of California at San Diego. Daniel Aaron, Victor Thomas, Professor of English and American Literature at Harvard University, coordinated the course.

The series will feature articles by Allen Weinsteint, professor of history and director of the American Studies Program at Smith College; Robert Helburne, economics professor at the New School for Social Research in New York; Paul Samuelson, Nobel Prize winning economist at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Walter LaFeber, Cornell University professor of history, and Nell Harris, history professor at the University of Chicago.

Readers wishing to take the course for academic credit can do so in conjunction with the City Colleges of Chicago or Governors State University in Park Forest South.

AT GOVERNORS State, persons may enroll for either one, two, or three hours credit. Tuition fee is $13.25 per credit hour plus a $7.50 activities fee. First-time undergraduates must also pay a $15 application fee.

Governors State will award upper level credit which can be used toward undergraduate or graduate degree. There will be midterm and final exams.

For more information, call the university at 534-5000, extension 2441 or 2442. Deadline for enrolling is Jan. 30.
