Knowledge is fruit
Gathered from the bushes of study
And the orchard of experience, Preserved in the jars of memory,
and Carefully stored in the cupboard
Of the mind. - Cathcart -

ALUMNI ASSOC. SPONSORS COMMUNITY PICNIC...
The GSU Alumni Association extends a most cordial invitation to all GSUers and their families to attend the first annual Community Picnic, Sunday, July 25. The Picnic will take place on the University campus. The Association Program Committee has planned a fun-filled day for young and old alike. Co-chairpersons Joanna Bosko (HLD) and Joanne Jandacek (HLD) are gathering tens of dozens of eggs, watermelons galore, sacks, nets, balls, bats and bubble gum. Contest winners will receive attractive ribbons to supplement spectator accolades. The festivities which begin at 1:00, will be climaxeded by a giant square dance in the Hall of Governors area. So come one, come all. Bring your own food and drink and come prepared for an active and exciting afternoon and evening of fun and games.

CANADIANS TO HEAR "GSU JAZZ LIVE"...Thanks to Steve Rodby of Northwestern University, the University of Saskatchewan will hear "GSU Jazz Live," an album produced by the GSU Jazz Ensemble and directed by Dr. Warrick Carter. Rodby, a teacher, plans to use the album in his classwork. "GSU Jazz Live" may be purchased in the GSU Bookstore.

FAZE I DEAD LION...is Wednesday at noon. Send copy to Joan Lewis, Editor, Office of University Relations, ext. 2418.
The GSU Alumni Association has published the first issue of its alumni magazine, "GSU Alumni News." The magazine, 16 pages in length, spotlights prominent alumni Ella Curry, superintendent of Manteno State Hospital and Ray Lenart, senior vice-president of the Matteson-Richton Bank, and announces Mary P. Endres as the first recipient of a lifetime, honorary membership in the Alumni Association. Also featured is a letter from Ronald Miller, Alumni Association President, the university placement office, and a survey of alumni about their GSU experience.

In a farewell letter "Thanks for the Memories," Pres. Engbretson said in part, "So best wishes to each of you. We have been pioneers together, sharing the hardships and celebrating the challenges of a great educational and social frontier. I will cherish my memories of you, the GSU alumni/ae, and of our shared accomplishments always."

The new magazine has been mailed to every graduate of the University. GSU staffers will receive a copy as soon as more copies become available. "GSU Alumni News" will be published three times a year.

GSUING...ANTHONY WEI (CCS) being appointed to the position of University Marshal...TINA LANUM (CS) recovering at home after a stay at St. James Hospital...TOM CALL (BO) being installed as secretary of the Park Forest Rotary Club...IRA BANK (HLD) directing a three-day guidance camp for Chicago Heights elementary schools...ELAINE RUTHERFORD-BENN (EAS Student) accepting a position on the nursing faculty of Kankakee Community College...TED ANDREWS (AA) consulting with the Dept. of Biology faculty at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos to help them "modernize" their biology program...JAMES JOSEPH GALLAGHER (EAS) becoming President-elect of the National Assoc. for Environmental Education, and conducting a Curriculum Writing Workshop for the Alaska Native Community Health Practitioner Program.

COMING UP...Sculpture Celebration........

A GSU-sponsored celebration of monumental sculpture "The Artist, the Campus and the Prairie" is being planned for late August. Seven giant pieces of sculpture will be on display here featuring a piece by John Payne (CCS) as well as works by sculptors DiSuvero, Henry, Peart, Jacquard and Strautmanis (the "Phoenix"). The celebration will transform the GSU campus into a "showcase" for some of the most imaginative artistic expressions of our time. A featured speaker for the event will be Mr. Ira Licht, Director of the Art in Public Places section of the National Endowment for the Arts. Keep your eyes open over the next few weeks and observe these remarkable men who will be on campus sitting and erecting their sculptures.
