THE SCULPTURE, THE PRAIRIE, AND THE CAMPUS...
The dedication of GSU as "A University Center of Monumental Art" is set for Friday, August 20 at 6:30 p.m. In honor of the occasion, a sculpture celebration, The Sculptor, the Prairie and the Campus featuring displays, a reception and a panel discussion are planned. All events are open to the public. Festivities will open with a wine and cheese buffet at 5:30 in the William E. Engbretson Community Conference Center followed by the official dedication ceremonies at 6:30. Capping the evening, a panel discussion chaired by Ira Licht of Washington, D.C., director of "Art in Public Places," under the National Endowment for the Arts. Members of the panel will be displaying sculptors. Works planned for exhibition are LARGE PLANAR HYBRID and OUTGROWN PYRAMID II, Richard Hunt; FALLING METEOR, Jerry Peart; OBLIQUE ANGLE, Jerald Jacquard; PHOENIX, Edvins Strautmanis; FOR LADY DAY, Mark di Suvero; ILLINOIS LANDSCAPE #5, John Henry; and MOCK II and MOCK I, John Payne. Richard Hunt has also crafted a model called "Interaction," which the university plans to commission for display near its main entrance. Visitors will be able to view the model at the celebration. See page three for map of sculpture locations. The sculptors will be on campus periodically erecting their monumental sculpture for the celebration. Coinciding with the Sculpture Celebration is a $1,500 grant awarded to GSU by the Illinois Arts Council's new Permanent Collection Purchase Program. Works by four Illinois artists have been purchased for permanent display here.

They are "Legion XII" by Maryrose Pilcher, Chicago; "Sandia II" by Dennis Kowalski, Chicago; "Organic Study" by Minna L. Reich, Washington, IL; and an untitled piece by Charles Wilson, Chicago. These pieces will be erected outdoors in the lakefront art gallery.

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION HUMANITIES FELLOWSHIPS...
The Rockefeller Foundation has announced a program of awards for 1977-78 to support works of humanistic scholarship on the values of contemporary civilization. The program welcomes applications from scholars in the traditional humanistic disciplines, especially those with interdisciplinary skills and interests (academic or institutional affiliation is not necessary). Younger as well as mature scholars of high creative potential will be considered carefully. About 35 awards are made each year.

Deadline for application of first-stage proposals is Oct. 1, 1976. Awards will be announced in March 1977. For further info contact Bill Dodd, ext. 2122 or: Rockefeller Foundation Humanities Fellowships, The Rockefeller Foundation, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, New York 10036.

ATTENTION COMPUTER CENTER USERS: Effective Aug. 16, two new service forms will be used in the GSU Computing Center: "Computer Operations Service Request" and "Batch Control Form." Discard your supply of the previously used goldenrod colored "COSR" form. Your unit authorizing agent has been mailed a limited supply of these new forms for your convenience.

FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE...The University Bookstore will be open on Sunday, Aug. 22 from 12:30-4:30 (Commencement Day) for the convenience of our campus visitors.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA RECOGNIZES TWO GSU WOMEN...Dr. Viera I. Pablant and Dr. Roberta M. Bear, both of HLD "have been selected as Outstanding Young Women of America for 1976 in recognition of outstanding ability, accomplishments, and services to the community."

Dr. Pablant is a university professor and clinical child psychologist. Prior to joining GSU in 1975 she was director of children's services at the Navajo County Guidance clinic in Arizona. Dr. Bear, a professor of early childhood education, is responsible for developing and teaching a program to prepare undergraduate and graduate students for careers in urban pre-school education.

MODULE LOOKS ANEW AT TRANSPORTATION...Of interest to students in regional planning and business administration is a module being offered this fall, "Transportation Systems." Through readings, seminars, and visits to Chicago area transportation facilities students will find a balance between theoretical and applied study of current transportation problems. Instructor is Paul A. Dillon, a consultant to the Illinois Department of Transportation, and a part-time community professor in EAS.

A REMINDER...Sept. 1 marks the date of the first Fall Faculty Meeting. All faculty members are urged to attend. Please call Mary Burner, ext. 2418 or 2419 or Dr. A. Shekib, ext. 2268 to confirm. The meeting begins at 9:00 a.m. in the William E. Engbreton Community Conference Center.
