SINGER-SONGWRITER . . . Faith Pillow will perform a mixture of jazz and gospel at the University, Friday, September 26, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. A singer who blends her own tropical jazz with straight jazz music to create a unique style, she has become well known in a number of Chicago area entertainment spots. Tickets for the concert are $2 for the general public; $1 for GSU faculty and staff, GSU Alumni Association members, and senior citizens; and free for GSU students.

ATTENTION, FACULTY & ADMINISTRATORS . . . Joyce Kennedy of the Occupational Education Office at GSU has announced a State-wide Conference for Increasing the Participation of Minorities in Vocational Education to be held November 13-15, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago. Programs (without remuneration) are being solicited from interested GSU faculty and administrators. The deadline for program submission is October 15. The conference is sponsored by the Illinois State Board of Education in cooperation with GSU. Announcements and registration forms are available in the Occupational Education Office, x2528.

MCCARTHY TO LECTURE AT GSU . . . Former U.S. Senator Eugene McCarthy, veteran of presidential campaigns and third partyism, will appear in GSU's Music Recital Hall on Friday, October 3, at 8 p.m. Making the appearance just a couple of weeks after the televised controversial presidential debate and just a month before the general election, he will discuss politics and its often confusing language. He will appear as part of a weekend workshop on language and politics being coordinated by University Professor Hugh Rank. Admission is $2 for the general public; $1 for GSU faculty, staff and Alumni Association members, and senior citizens; and free for GSU students.

INSIDE THIS WEEK . . . Inserted in this issue of Faze I is an informational sheet from the Instructional Communications Center (ICC), introducing GSUers to the new Media Production Lab. The facility will open to faculty and students Wednesday, October 1. Please retain the insert as a convenient reference for future use.

ART ON DISPLAY . . . Abstract, modern and realist art works of the Governors State University Permanent Art Collection will be displayed in the University's Visual Arts Gallery, October 1-16, to coincide with the Illinois Arts Council Art Week, October 4-12. The collection consists of five paintings and five sculptures acquired during the latter 1970s. Admission free.
CLIMBING YOUR FAMILY TREE? The "South Suburban Genealogical and Historical Society (SSGH) Newsletter," September, 1980, contained an article listing the University Library at GSU as an unconventional source of genealogical materials. The Library has books, atlases, periodicals, and newspapers containing information of interest to genealogists. Mary Sallander, a Library staff member, belongs to the SSGHS and is listed as a reference person in the newsletter.

FALL AND THE GSU NATURE TRAILS go together. Discover the refreshment of a fall nature walk on the newly developed GSU Nature Trails located at the rear of Parking Lot A. The interpretive program has been expanded and now includes new Trails B and C. All trails feature rest/observational areas with benches. A flowering prairie restoration project is located on Trail A. Trail guides are available at two points along the Nature Trails. Improvements on the trails were constructed by the CAS Science Division, assisted by a CETA youth employment project hosted by Aunt Martha's of Park Forest. Take a leisurely half-hour walk after a short lunch and discover a beautiful world in our campus backyard.

GET YOUR PETITIONS IN . . . as a Civil Service Senate nominee before 11 p.m. on Monday, September 29. Completed petitions should be delivered to Lynne Hostetter in the University Governance Office between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Mondays-Fridays, or dropped in the third floor ballot box at any other time. The election is scheduled from 10 a.m.-8 p.m., October 20-22. Absentee ballots can be obtained by written request to the Governance Office and must be returned by poll closing on October 22.

TO MY COLLEAGUES AND FRIENDS AT GSU . . . Thank you for your messages and prayers. Your love and support mean very much to me and are helping me through these very difficult days.

It is good to be home from the hospital with my family. When I begin to feel stronger, I hope to be able to fight this setback.

Again, thanks for your best wishes.

MEDIA PRODUCTION LAB
for Faculty and Students

The ICC opens the door October 1 to a new facility inviting faculty to produce instructional support materials needed for class.

The Media Production Lab is your opportunity to use equipment for graphics, photography, and audio recording, including mixing and synchronization with slides.

Between 1:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, you can make that last minute overhead transparency or do live voice recording.

If you use 35mm slides in class, but they need reorganization or duplication, we have a light table, copy stand and projectors.

Need help or information about the equipment? Assistants are available to show you what you need to know.

If you have any questions, contact Alis Ellis or Mary Jane Berndt, Ext. 2204.

MEDIA PRODUCTION LAB - How You Can Use It.
