

CHHS 50th Anniversary Conference

Fostering Educational and Vocational Success for Young Adults with Disabilities

COMMUNITY RESOURCE ROUNDTABLES

During mid-day gaps in your schedule as well as during lunch, please feel free to sit down and chat with representatives from some of our community resources and find out how they support success. Most representatives will be available from 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. in the Hall of Honors. The roundtable conversations are set up to allow you to spend 15 to 20 minutes exploring with two or three organizations of your choice.

THANK YOU

An event with the ambitions and scope of this conference is only possible with teamwork. To all of the friends, volunteers, presenters, panelists, and community partners that gave generously of their time, effort, and beautiful minds, thank you for making it happen.

A very special shout-out goes to Alexis Sarkisian and Friends of the GSU Library for sponsoring the Temple Grandin movie day and providing water throughout the day for our guests; and to Patti Herbst and The Center for Independence for generously providing lunch and popcorn for our Temple Grandin movie day.

All of our supporters at GSU have been extraordinarily responsive and courteous:

Follett Bookstore – James Sexton, thank you for jumping aboard

The Center for Performing Arts - Lana Rogachevskaya*, thank you for sharing in the vision; Jane Cox*, for keeping us on track and getting the word out; Jon Cobb, for making it all happen even with Shen Yun

The School of Extended Learning – Amy Barsha and especially Michelle Sebasco, for running the conference registration

Arena Food Services – Thank you for saying yes even during Spring Break with Construction

Facilities Development and Management – for setting up our physical environment and figuring it all out even with Spring Break, Construction, and Shen Yun

Department of Public Safety – for keeping us secure

University Print Shop – John Adducci, thank you for our great signs and materials

Instructional Technology Services – for having our backs when technology is not being friendly

Marketing and Communications – Sarah Hirsch*, Zion Banks, and Isabella Hollingsworth for helping us bring the event to life; Michael Scalzo and Tim Cappos for designing everything

The GSU Library – Paul Blobaum, thank you for setting up our event page on OPUS

We extend so much gratitude to the CHHS staff who have saved the day more than once:

Julie Anderson* – who did everything from designing notepads to wrangling volunteers

Laura Owens* – who took charge of our website and e-blasts

Zoyla Ramirez* – who helped make sure our bills were paid and our travelers situated

Ron Sandhyapagu – who printed nametags, stuffed bags, and learned all about OPUS

Karen Cesar – who took the time to graciously and respectfully help us coordinate our space in the midst of construction

*The Conference Planning Board is a group of very special people who are invested in making GSU and the community it serves a better place for people of all abilities. The group has done so much to make sure all voices are heard, to recruit volunteers, presenters, and exhibitors, and to kick-start our community assessments and goal-setting. We are off to a great start thanks to:

Tamekia Bell, Cindy and Gail Berner, Anjali Fulambarker, Mike Hart, Ann Jackson, Nicole Koonce, Angela Riccelli, Caren Schranz, Angela Szepanik-Sanchez, Joann Tomesieski-Peters, Maurice Webb, and Michele Webb-Blondell
