Rethinking Brazilian Race Relations in the Era of Affirmative Action

Dr. Jerry Dávila, Jorge Paulo Lemann
Professor of Brazilian History, and the Director of the Lemann Institute for Brazilian Studies at the University of Illinois

February 16, 2016
4:30 – Room F1622

Brazil claimed to be a “racial democracy.” What does that mean and how have Afro-Brazilians responded?

Learn about state and social movements in the 20th century and the influence of race on public policy.

Co-Sponsored by GSU Intellectual Life Grant, Division of Humanities and Social Sciences, and ALAS