@GSUveep

Welcome to our 2017 – 18 annual report. After a nearly three-year budget impasse, June 2018 finally brought some long-awaited relief with a state-appropriated budget and a much-needed sense of stability that allowed for institutional planning rather than crisis management. However, despite the issuance of a budget, the damage inflicted by two years of stability, and the corresponding lack of uncertainty in public higher education, was real and directly resulted in declining enrollment after years of double-digit enrollment growth.

In our fourth year as a comprehensive institution, GSU enrolled 5,185 students, a decrease of 10.9% from 2016 – 17, largely due to significant declines in graduate students and international students. We welcomed 200 students to our fourth freshmen class, retained 117 sophomores (53.9%) and maintained a near-capacity occupancy rate (97.2%) in Prairie Place—277 students—for the third consecutive year.

While commencements are always a reason for celebration, our 2018 Commencement Ceremony was truly historic given the graduation of our inaugural freshmen class. Scattered in the midst of 1,100 graduates at the Tinley Park Convention Center were our first graduates who enrolled as freshmen: the first class of students to spend their entire four years of college at GSU. To recognize this moment, both May graduation ceremonies featured a graduating student who enrolled in our first freshmen class. In the morning ceremony, an overjoyed Justin Smith, graduating with his degree in entrepreneurship from the COB, kicked off his speech with the declaration: “We made it!”

At the evening ceremony, Simone Jones said what resonated with her most was living in Prairie Place. “The sense of being part of a community gives you that extra push to be better and be a good role model for that community.” Prairie Place, the university’s first residence hall, also opened its doors in 2014 as part of our transformation from an upper-division commuter institution to a comprehensive residential institution.

Bookmarked by our fall 2017 enrollment numbers and joyous memories of our historic commencement in summer 2018, our division made significant progress on year three of our five-year strategic plan Reaching Vision 2020. This annual report provides information about the breadth of programs and services sponsored by our team of dedicated and talented student affairs educators and enrollment management professionals. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or comments about this report, or if you are interested in partnering with Student Affairs in creating or expanding programs and services for the Governors State University community.

Sincerely,

REACHING VISION <sup>20</sup>/<sub>20</sub>

Contributing to the GSU Strategic Plan

Our Reaching Vision 2020 plan demonstrates how the division contributes directly to GSU's Strategic Plan while also articulating the unique strategic opportunities within the division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management. Articulating that contribution through our Reaching Vision 2020 strategic planning process, particularly in the midst of such challenging times in higher education, is critical to ensuring we serve our students and our community by fulfilling our mission.

2017 – 18 marks year three of our five-year strategic plan. While this annual report highlights some notable accomplishments, a full dashboard of progress towards focus area goals can be reviewed at <http://www.govst.edu/reachingvision2020/>.

Selected Highlights Towards Our Strategic Planning Objectives

Athletics and Recreational Activities: In only its second year of competition, the Men's Basketball team captured the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference (CCAC) regular season and tournament titles. GSU also earned its first berth into the NAIA National Tournament. Additionally, the Men's Basketball team finished 14th in the final NAIA Division II Men's Basketball Coaches' Top 25 Poll. Jalen Miller received CCAC Player of the Year accolades while Tony Bates was named CCAC Co-Coach of the Year.

Academic Resource Center: In an effort to improve outcomes and support for students on academic probation, the Center restructured the Lower Division Academic Recovery Program (LDARP) and created a new Pathways to Academic Recovery course. Transitioning the LDARP workshop program to a class model proved very successful. In spring 2018, 46 lower division academic recovery students registered for Pathways to Academic Recovery courses and, as a result, 83% of students completed the program and received a passing grade, compared to spring 2017 with a 9% completion rate.

Career Development and Graduate Student Programming: After a two-year budget impasse, Illinois reinstated funding for the Illinois Cooperative Work Study Grant Program in late December, and GSU was allocated $34,466.84. To date, all of the funds have been allocated to 11 employers for 15 students placed; another three students are expected to be placed.

College Pathways Program: With the support of the Kresge Foundation, GSU launched an innovative program with Crete-Monee High School to improve college readiness and encourage baccalaureate degree attainment in high potential students. In the first year, 29 students participated in the Hidden Stars program, designed to be scalable and replicable in future years.

Diversity Education and Leadership Development: The Men's Leadership Summit, with the theme "From Reasonable Doubt to 4:44: The Evolution of Maleness, Masculinity and Manhood" drew more than 125 participants. Kevin Powell served as keynote speaker, and the conference used the musical career of Jay-Z as a backdrop and spoke to men discovering the influence of maleness, masculinity, and manhood on their journey to be leaders.

Dual Degree and Transfer Student Programs: More than 85% of the DDP students who have completed their associate degree and enrolled at GSU have graduated, transferred, or are still enrolled and pursuing their degrees.

Health and Student Counseling Center: The addition of lower division and residential students to the university's student body has generated a growing need for basic health and wellness services on campus. To address this growing need, GSU partnered with Advocate Healthcare and launched a health center in conjunction with expanded counseling services. In its first year of operation, the new Health and Student Counseling Center has seen 1,934 clinical health visits and 1,800 counseling sessions.

New Student Programs: With coordinated institutional efforts and campus-wide support, first-year students entering in fall 2017 earned an average 2.26 GPA, the highest average first semester GPA since the admission of first-year students in fall 2014. Moreover, the fall to spring persistence of first-year students rose to nearly 80%.

Student Advocacy: The Office of the Dean of Students (ODOS) launched GSU4U, an initiative to strengthen support for student success. GSU4U connects students to campus and community resources when they are facing personal difficulties, such as food and housing insecurity. In its first year, GSU4U has trained more than 50 faculty and staff ambassadors and helped more than 100 students apply for SNAP benefits.

ACADEMIC RESOURCE CENTER

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) (ARC) strives to promote the personal growth of students and to enrich their academic experience. ARC provides support for students in academic recovery, GSU STAR assistance, Access Services for Students with Disabilities, tutoring, Writing Center services, and New Student Programs. In 2017 – 18, ARC continued its expansion and growth as part of the new Student Success Commons with the transition of New Student Programs and Disability Services now under its portfolio of program and services.

Department Highlights:

- ARC had an exciting year, with the development and implementation of early alerts initiatives. The department continues to focus on submission of midterm grades for both undergraduate and graduate students. In fall 2017, 2,145 students received 3,773 midterm grades and in spring 2018, 1,784 students received 2,474 midterm grades. Intervention efforts following midterm grades proved equally successful with 41% of undergraduate students who were earning a “D” or “F” midterm grade received a final grade of “C” or better for fall 2017 and spring 2018. In addition to midterm grades, ARC helped launch GSU STAR Early Alert Progress Surveys. As a pilot, General Studies faculty completed surveys during the third, sixth, and twelfth week of courses to track students’ progress. During fall 2017, faculty completed 164 Early Alert Progress Surveys, and 91 surveys were completed in spring 2018.
- Two programs, Pathways to Academic Recovery and Back on Track (BOT), continue to assist students in academic recovery. The Academic Resource Center restructured the Lower Division Academic Recovery Program (LDARP) and created a new Pathways to Academic Recovery non-credit course. Transitioning the LDARP workshop program to a class model was a huge success. In spring 2018, 46 lower division academic recovery students registered for Pathways to Academic Recovery courses. As a result, 83% of students completed the program and received a passing grade. This is a great success compared to spring 2017 with a 9% completion rate. Back on Track continues to be strong with an 89% completion rate, the same rate as AY 2016 – 17.

- During the 2017 – 18 academic year, the Writing Center recorded 1,913 student contacts with 709 face-to-face appointments, 563 Growl contacts, and 425 Library contacts. Writing consultants served 210 students through workshops; of this total, 20 attended the Graduate Writing Boot Camp and 73 attended the campus-wide Back to Basics forums, two new programs instituted this year. The Graduate Writing Boot Camp, a day-long session offered twice each semester and once during the summer, provides distraction-free time for grad students to work on capstones, theses, or dissertations. As such, it is intended for graduate students who are nearing the end of their coursework. The Back to Basics forums provide all members of the GSU community with broad remediation in language, focusing on such topics as grammar, punctuation, editing, and proofreading.
- A total of 187 students participated in ARC tutoring with 787 contacts in math, science, statistics, and business. As part of ARC’s Vision 2020 Goals, Supplemental Instruction (SI) extended services to support both lower and upper division students. ARC provided SI assistance in ten math, science, and statistic courses.

ADMISSIONS AND RECRUITING

The Office of Admissions offers assistance to prospective students and applicants during the selection and admission process. The office provides admission counseling appointments, campus tours, group presentations, and a number of recruitment events to showcase our university to students and their families. Our team works with various departments throughout the university to provide the best experience possible to future Jaguars.

In addition to outreach and recruiting, a team of admission representatives works hard to provide timely admission decisions to applicants, and an admission processing team manages the intake of all application materials, document scanning, and evaluation of admission applications. During the 2017 – 18 academic year, the Office of Admissions received more than 7,943 inquiries, 7,077 new applications into the Colleague system, and issued 4,505 admission decisions (both admitted and denied), representing a 64% admission application completion rate.

Web: www.govst.edu/admissions

Department Highlights:

- With the new document imaging system in place for a full year, Enrollment Management continues to improve the integration of the CRM (Customer Relations Management) and the Colleague ERP system to improve efficiencies and service to students. Along with the Lexmark implementation, we were also able to create a workflow that automates the Colleague process to move completed files from applied to complete without manual intervention, and move files to review sooner.
- Admissions hosted our third Signing Day and Scholars Recognition event on May 9. Nearly 120 new students and their family members celebrated their decision to attend GSU in the Fall 2018 semester.
- Transfer Thursdays continue to be a successful GSU admission program. This year we had 347 students register to attend a Transfer Thursday event. Of the 347, 192 attended, and 152 students (43% yield) were approved for admission (a 5% increase from 2016 – 17).

Participant at the Signing Day and Scholars Recognition for the White House Reach Higher campaign.

- Campus visits and tours continued to leave a positive impression on our prospective students and their families; 45 high school and college group visits (an increase of 4.7% from 2017 – 18) for a total of 1,420 prospective students visiting our campus and touring the university with the Office of Admissions (a 2.7% increase from 2016 – 17).
- The Recruiting and Outreach team continues to grow our prospects by representing GSU in the high schools and community colleges of Illinois and Indiana. The Admissions team targeted 27,000 prospective seniors, juniors, and sophomores from local high schools who lived in the 40-mile radius for outreach. As a result 4,260 high school students received additional communication about admission events.
- The Admissions Office implemented new communication campaigns targeting inquiries, applicants, admitted, and deposited students to promote conversion and yield activities. Our inquiries, for the first time, consistently included FAFSA filers who selected GSU (aid year 2017 – 18 and 2018 – 19) without submitting an application, no shows (after scrubbing by National Clearinghouse) and prospective student inquiries. These students are continuously (every 7 – 10 days) being contacted by emails, voice messages, and text messages to help inform them about their next step in the enrollment process.

COMMUNITY PARTNER SPOTLIGHT

GREAT AMERICAN BAGEL SPONSOR POP-UP PANTRY

The students hurriedly push a cart of bagged bagels through the Governors State University Hall of Governors and a line starts forming at a table at the far end of the hall.

“It’s like this every week,” said Student Senator Trauvel Crawford, also student coordinator of the Center for Civic Engagement’s Community Service Council, which runs a Great America Bagel Pop-up Food Pantry three times a week on campus. Crawford was joined on a recent pickup by fellow Senator Kendall Wright and Service Council member Terrance Lee, Jr.

Every Monday, Thursday, and Friday, the GSUXpress delivers the students to the University Park bagel store, where they collect an assortment of donated bagels – cinnamon raisin to jalapeno to poppy seed – left over at the end of the day.

On Monday and Thursday, the “pantry” springs up in the middle of campus about 3:30 p.m. On Fridays, it is at Prairie Place, home to nearly 300 students.

The Great American Bagel Pop-up Pantry is part of a broader student resource initiative, GSU4U, run by the Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management to address the issue of food insecurity on campus. Dr. Robert Clay Interim Director of Student Life and Intercultural Student Affairs reports that the need came to the forefront last year through a recent study of 43,000 students at 66 two- and four-year schools. More than half of the 76 GSU students surveyed report being homeless or hungry to some degree.

Chris Lettieri, President of the Great American Bagel, said he wants to help meet a need. “Instead of throwing out our end-of-day bagels, we donate them to GSU and other 501c charities, such as P.A.D.S. and homeless shelters, to people in need. We try to help those folks who can use it.”

Crawford, a senior studying marketing, said he is promoting good will.

“I love volunteering and just took the initiative to do what no one else would. One day I might need something like this, so I’m paying it forward.”
