SHORT-TERM, MINI GRANTS AVAILABLE -- University faculty and staff members may be eligible for short-term mini grants available under a six-month contractual agreement between the university and the Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education (DAVTE) of the Illinois Board of Education. According to Dr. Robert B. Donaldson II (CbPA), coordinator of occupational education, limited funds are available for activities related to occupational, vocational, and technical education. "The Occupational Education Project" has been designed for the development and enrichment of comprehensive delivery systems of occupational, technical, and career educational activities at Governors State University," Dr. Donaldson said. Faculty or staff members interested in more information about the mini grants may contact Dr. Donaldson at Ext. 2283.

NOTE OF THANKS -- Alis Ellis (ASR) expresses thanks to members of the university community for "their help, remembrances, good wishes, and prayers during my recent hospitalization and convalescence."

MEMORIAL DONATIONS STILL BEING ACCEPTED -- Nine persons have contributed $165 to the Governors State University Foundation in memory of Patricia Burkhardt. As an employee of the Office of University Advancement and Alumni Affairs, Pat devoted many hours toward the success of numerous Foundation and Alumni activities. She is remembered for her enthusiastic and positive support of the university. Memorial donations still may be made by sending checks to William H. Dodd. More information is available from him at Ext. 2215.

'T WAS A WEEK BEFORE CHRISTMAS AND ALL THROUGH THE UNIVERSITY/SEVERAL PEOPLE WERE HUNGRY AND SOME EVEN THIRSI(TY) -- Sufficient for the poem is the parody thereof. The point of this poetic license is to invite members of the university community to visit the Office of University Relations between 10 a.m. and noon on Tuesday, Dec. 18, to enjoy food, drink and fellowship. Call Susan Inman at Ext. 2122 for more details.
