Award Amount: $5,592,837.86 (Training)

Dates: 7/1/2016 – 6/30/2017

Purpose: Provide services that promote permanency by maintaining, strengthening, and safeguarding the functioning of families to 1) prevent substitute care placement; 2) promote family reunification; 3) stabilize foster care placements; 4) facilitate youth development; and 5) ensure the safety, permanency, and wellbeing of children.

DDP Male Success Initiative

Sponsor: Kresge Foundation

Department: Office of the Provost

Principal Investigators: Dr. Deborah Bordelon & Dr. Aurelio Valente

Award Amount: $450,000

Dates: 10/1/2016 – 9/30/2019

Purpose: To expand the Dual Degree Program to include proven strategies for attracting men of color to a clear pathway from high school to community colleges to the achievement of university bachelor degrees.

Media Advocacy Vietnam

Sponsor: Villanova University

College: CAS

Principal Investigator: Dr. Jason Zingsheim

Award Amount: $9,654

Dates: 12/1/2016 – 12/31/2017

Purpose: This community based research study provides support and training for Vietnam's lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community to engage in media advocacy. This project involves collaboration between GSU, Northwestern University, DePaul University, and a nonprofit organization based in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. Qualitative data will be analyzed to better understand how Vietnamese LGBT community members discursively construct sexual and gender minority subjectivities, as well as the dominant discourses that marginalize LGBT citizens.

Beautification Day

Sponsor: National Education Association

College: COE

Principal Investigators: Dr. Katy Hisrich & Michael Flood

Award Amount: $800

Dates: 1/1/2017 – 5/10/2017

Purpose: To improve the landscape of a local public school that lacks outdoor activity space for faculty or students. The outdoor environment will be more appealing and engaging by planting flowers and trees to create a more positive atmosphere.

Governors State University Incentive

Sponsor: IL Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity

Department: Facilities Development & Management

Principal Investigator: James Zumerchik

Award Amount: $61,481 (Electric)

Award Amount: $131,801 (Natural Gas)

Dates: 2/27/2017 – 5/8/2017

Purpose: The Incentive Program provides set rebate incentive levels for common retrofits and approved energy efficiency improvements.

#HashtagLunchbag

Sponsor: Illinois Education Association

College: COE

Principal Investigators: Dr. Katy Hisrich, Stephanie Henning, & Brianna Fabsits

Award Amount: $350

Dates: 3/1/2017 – 10/31/2017

Purpose: The Student Education Association will partner with the Communication Disorders Organization to request donations from local stores to create a minimum of 100 lunch bags that will be given to the homeless.

Teacher Success Panel

Sponsor: National Education Association

College: COE

Principal Investigators: Dr. Katy Hisrich, Stephanie Henning, & Jessica Dunahoo

Award Amount: $1,284.65

Dates: 3/1/2017 – 10/31/2017

Purpose: The Student Education Association will partner with new and experienced teachers to provide future educators with career enhancing advice through a 3-hour networking event that includes a panel presentation, dinner, and materials showcase.

War, Trauma, and the Humanities

Sponsor: National Endowment for the Humanities

College: CAS

Principal Investigators: Dr. Andrae Marak & Dr. Rosemary Johnsen

Award Amount: $100,000

Dates: 5/1/2017 – 6/30/2018

Purpose: To conduct a multi-part program on the Dialogues on Experience of War. The program recruits and trains veteran students to serve as supplemental instructors and small group discussion leaders for a special-offering course. The course focuses on representations in the humanities of the trauma of war as it is experienced by members of the military and their families, culminating in a video recorded public townhall event and roundtable discussions.

Promoting K-3 Mathematics Instructional Effectiveness: A Content-Based, Evidence-Driven Professional Development Program Aligned with CCSS-M

Sponsor: CME Foundation

College: COE

Principal Investigator: Dr. Xiaobo She

Award Amount: $200,000

Dates: 6/1/2017 – 5/31/2019

Purpose: To respond to the urgent need for effective professional development (PD) by designing, implementing, and evaluating a yearlong, intensive PD program for K-3 school teachers in high-need schools to improve both content knowledge and instructional practices in accordance with the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics (CCSS-M).

The Nathan Manilow Sculpture Park Butterfly Ranch

Sponsor: Openlands (ComEd)

Department: NMSP

Principal Investigator: Jeffery Stevenson (Geoffrey Bates)

Award Amount: $10,000

Dates: 6/1/2017 – 12/31/2018

Purpose: To transform 11+ acres of successional field into a canvas for butterfly propagation while it provides students, nearby residents, and park visitors with opportunities for bird watching, biking, and hiking. Didactic signage will enhance the experience with information about the importance of the plants and insects observed.

Behavioral Health Workforce Education and Training (BHWET) Program

Sponsor: Health Resources and Service Administration

Colleges: CHHS & COE

Principal Investigators: Dr. Cheryl Mejta & Dr. Shannon Dermer

Award Amount: $1,918,310

Dates: 9/30/2017 – 8/31/2021

Purpose: To address the substance abuse and mental health needs of the region by preparing 29 addictions and mental health counselors to work with under-served populations within integrated health care settings. In collaboration with the Partnership for Resilience, GSU also will address the behavioral health and trauma training needs of primary care providers.

Teaching at the University of Colombo: Contributing to the Growth of Psychology in Sri Lanka

Sponsor: Department of State – Fulbright Scholars Program

College: COE

Principal Investigator: Dr. Elizabeth Ruiz

* The listed projects are new to the university. All funds were secured through new full proposal submissions. Previously funded multi-year projects may be listed if secured through a new proposal cycle.

Purpose: To teach activities that would provide external expertise to the University of Colombo in establishing a new psychology department and curriculum, faculty training, teaching, and student mentoring on research projects. Sharing knowledge gained from this project by writing journal articles or books on topics related to the development of organized psychology in an international context and a global perspective on psychological trauma affecting civilian populations.
