GAVIN FOUNDATION FUND RAISING...The first foundation to make a grant to GSU is now embarked on fund raising of its own. The Women's Auxiliary of the Dr. Charles E. Gavin Memorial Foundation is presenting VOICIE PARIS March 19. Tickets for the luncheon show are $15.00 each. Reservations are being taken for the show to be held at the Pick Congress Hotel. Contact Rich Allen in GSU Financial Aids for tickets. Rich is a member of the Gavin Foundation.

THE DELAYED FOX...New dates for the GSU Children's Theater 1972 production, "My Friend, the Fox," are Saturdays and Sundays, March 18-19 and March 25-26, at 3p.m. in the University Commons. This is a week's postponement from the original dates announced.

ACADEMY AWARD FILM AT GSU...The Counseling and Psychology Film Fest will have an award winner at its showings this Wednesday, March 1. The award film, "Journey into Self" and another film, "The Humanistic Revolution" will be shown at 4:00p.m. and 8:00p.m. in Room 244.

CASSETTE RECORDERS...The ICC has a critical shortage of cassette tape recorders. An open policy of easy check out requires that students and faculty maintain a spirit of sharing. If you have a cassette recorder and have not used it in two weeks, please return it to the ICC.

LRC RECYCLING SERVICE...Recycle your paperback books at the Paperback Exchange Rack in the LRC. Please remember to bring at least one book to replace the one you take.

G ngs...Joe Meredith author of the book: The CAI Author/Instructor(Educational Technology Publications, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey). The book, reviewed in the February, 1972 Computing Reviews, deals with the practical problems of the teacher who wants to start utilizing computer assisted instruction as an author of CAI programs. Are you listening GSU? ...Bill Engbretson joining Governor Ogilvie and other Illinois college presidents for meetings with the Illinois Congressional delegation in Washington February 22. The Illinois visitors to Washington hope to get action from the Congress on higher education funding proposals... Frances Bibb's dissertation submitted by Northern Illinois University to the Delta Pi Epsilon National Research Education Committee for consideration in its annual competition... John Rohr presenting a paper "Regime Character and Political Maturity," February 4 at a conference sponsored by the "Religion and Politics Project." The Conference at the University of Chicago selected John to represent the Midwest division of the project at the Southeast Division meeting scheduled for Duke University March 24-26... Warrick Carter participating in a music-lecture program performing on the percussion in "The History of Black Music" at Hutchinson Junior College in Kansas sponsored by the American Association of Junior Colleges... Dan Cassagrande selected to attend the two day faculty workshop on "Water Pollution" held at Argonne National Laboratory February 18-19... John Canning re-elected elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Homewood... Rich Allen recently addressing the Chicago Leadership Resources Program.

OWNER, OWNER...From the Business Office... Property of an individual: Equipment that is privately owned should be clearly identified as to ownership if housed at Governors State. A tag could be affixed stating: PERSONAL PROPERTY OF _____.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: Who among us is a former professional golfer? He was sponsored by Quaker Oats!

CABLE TV...A program that relates directly to the future plans of GSU will be held Sunday, February 27 at 8:00p.m. at the Unitarian-Universalist Church at 15th and Scott in Chicago Heights. GSU's media facilities will interface with a cable television system that will begin operation this year in Park Forest South. Mel Muchnik will moderate a program that includes Jerrold Oppenheim, cable TV chairman, Illinois ACLU, Anda Korsts, community television producer, and Irving Kalusna, Vice President of Complex, the franchisee of Park Forest South. Video equipment will be displayed by the ICC.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK...From an AP report on a recent Prague government edict (in a recent advertisement for Commentary magazine): Because Christmas Eve falls on a Thursday, the day has been designated a Saturday for work purposes. Factories will close all day, with stores open a half day only. Friday December 25 has been designated a Sunday, with both factories and stores open all day. Monday, December 28, will be a Wednesday for work purposes. Wednesday, December 30, will be a business Friday. Saturday, January 2, will be a Sunday, and Sunday, January 3, will be a Monday.

And you think the GSU calendar is confusing!

ICC RETREAT...The ICC will be closed March 1 during its first pentagonal retreat.
