CS ART LECTURE...A lecture covering the early Post Abstract Expressionists will be held on Friday, March 17 from 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. in the Fine and Performing Arts Room. Dr. David M. Sokol, Associate Professor in Art History, University of Illinois, will be the visiting Community Professor. The new art lectures are so popular with the public that student seats are getting harder to find.

ISSUES IN WOMEN'S STUDIES...Paula Wolff, Instructor, Dept. of Political Science, Northern Illinois University, will be the guest in the third meeting of this module. She has had wide experience, including serving as Research Assistant for the Committee on Illinois Government, Governor Ogilvie's Legislative liaison and liaison to the Sixth Illinois Constitutional Convention, and also Campaign Advisor for Mary Lee Leahy, Chicago aldermanic. The topic, "Women in Politics" is open to interested persons on Thursday, March 16, Room 840 at 1:30 p.m.

PARENT STUDY GROUPS...How do I get Tommy to eat his dinner? Why do the children argue so often? How can I get Sally to bed on time? How can I get my children to act responsibly? Several study groups to deal with these kinds of questions will be started in the next couple of weeks as part of the module "Practicum in Parent Study Group Leadership". Interested parents or groups of parents should contact Jon Carlson or Ed Stormer, coordinators of the module, for more information.

ICC SERVICES....The ICC is attempting to provide more efficient service to the GSU community by some changes in its staff and procedures. ICC creative people have found it difficult to perform at their best due to frequent interruptions from people requesting new work or information. To relieve its creative people in this situation, the ICC has added a production secretary, Linda Edens, to its staff. Linda's responsibilities include meeting with those who visit the ICC to request new work, assisting them in filling out ICC "Production Requests", and obtaining information for them from ICC creative staff. The ICC would appreciate the cooperation of faculty, students and staff who, by directing inquiries and requests for work to Linda Edens, will greatly help the creative people of the ICC in their desire to do the best job possible in the least amount of time.

THEN THERE WERE 45,000...GSU is still waiting for the $45,000 in capital funds Governor Ogilvie said he would release at a recent speech at Olympia Fields. Bill Engbretson recently sent photos from that speech to the Governor with captions. Check the bulletin board in the Academic V.P. area for the Governor's response together with the original photos. The chuckles still haven't produced the desired money.

GSUings...MANNY CHAVEZ invited to join the Subcommittee on Education of the Spanish Speaking Peoples Study Commission chaired by Senator Daniel P. O'Brien. Funny, Senor O'Brien doesn't sound Spanish....TULSI SARAL, co-author of a chapter in a new book, The Analysis of Subjective Culture, writing on a cross-cultural study of role perception. ...The March issue of Phi Delta Kappan, an educational leadership journal, features GSU in an article titled, "New Schools for New Cities."....GSU Student, WARDELL HARGROVE, was elected as Chairman of the Board of Governors Council of Students on March 4.

MY FRIEND THE FOX'S FRIENDS...Urban Gateways will bring sixty-five children to see the first GSU Children's theater production, "My Friend the Fox", to be performed in the Commons area on two Saturdays and Sundays, March 18-19 and March 25-26 at 3:00 p.m. Urban Gateways is an organization devoted to cultural enrichment in inner city schools. It has an endowment from the National Arts Foundation.

TUMELTY DEPARTURE...Bob Tumelty has accepted an appointment as a director of a project based at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco. He will be appointed to the Department of Community Medicine, School of Medicine. His resignation at GSU becomes effective May 1. Bob's letter of resignation said in part "I have been thoroughly challenged at Governors State University I leave here with the same belief...My friends and colleagues and the things we have done together will always be a warmly remembered part of me."

ERIC WORKSHOP...The LRC workshop on ERIC, a couple of weeks ago, attracted about fifty people including representatives from Prairie State, Morraine Valley, Northern Ill. Univ., Northeastern Ill. Univ., Mundelein College, Richton Park School District, Flossmoor Public Schools and the Chicago Heights Public Schools.

GOING ONCE, GOING TWICE, SOLD!...The "Selling of the Pentagon" and "You Don't Have to Buy War Mrs. Smith" are the next scheduled films in the series of the South Suburban Human Relations Council (SHURE). SHURE is attempting to stimulate thought through the use of previously unavailable films on contemporary and controversial issues. The Council operates out of the Chicago Heights Universalist Church, 15th and Scott Streets. The above films will be shown Friday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a "coffee house" discussion.

JUST WAIT..."Wait Until Dark" is the free movie at Toletine College Sunday, March 12 at 7p.m. GSU students may bring two guests free.

QUESTION (from last week)...Who is Andy Soskol? He's the former professional golfer now known as Andy Lokos.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK..."The pessimist sees the difficulty in every opportunity; the optimist sees the opportunity in every difficulty."
