ACADEMIC V.P. SEARCH OVER...Months of work by a search committee and extensive interviews by GSU staff and students of five final candidates has resulted in the recommendation that Dr. MARY P. ENDRES be appointed to the position of Vice Pres. for Academic Affairs. Dr. Endres is now at Purdue University. Her appointment will be recommended to the BOG at its June meeting. Next week in FAZE 1: focus on Dr. Mary Endres.

FAZE 1 FEEDBACK...This is the 34th issue of FAZE 1. Since September, the faculty-staff newsletter has evolved into a weekly publication of staff activities, university meetings, and items of concern as well as news from the BHE and BOG. We've tried to include almost all items submitted. Now we'd like to know how you think FAZE 1 is doing and what you believe it ought to be doing. Attached to this issue of FAZE 1 is a feedback questionnaire. Please take some time during the week to provide us with the benefit of your opinions concerning a weekly newsletter for GSU.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: What other University has a Business Manager who commutes on a motorcycle?

SEE YOU IN "SO"...The naming of the sessions has undergone another metamorphosis...upon recommendation of the Academic Wing and approval of the President, the sessions, beginning in the Fall, will be referred to by letters indicating the months of the session. The Fall session will be referred to as the September-October Session abbreviated, "SO." Then comes the November-December or "ND" Session followed by the JF, MA, MJ, and JA Sessions. See -Coming Events- for 1972 dates.

BLACK STRUGGLES...GSU will sponsor sculptor Benjamin Burton in an art exhibit entitled "The Black Struggles," May 30-June 2 in the North Rotunda of the mini-campus. Coordinated through the Black Studies Emphasis of Ethnic Studies under LORENZO MERRITT of CCS, Burton and his exhibit will be at GSU from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. throughout the week.

Burton, a Southern Illinois University graduate, is currently a Staff Assistant with the Black American Studies program at SIU as well as Coordinator of the Black Culture Society at Marion Federal prison in Illinois.

HUMAN SEXUALITY...Thirteen GSUers will offer an interdisciplinary approach to an understanding of human sexuality in a week's workshop beginning June 26. A human relations laboratory on the last two days will be part of the workshop. No fee is involved unless individuals desire to take the workshop for credit. Contact JON CARLSON for more info.

THE HAPPY DIETERS...Speaking of innovation, congrats to those GSUers losing weight on the Daily News diet plan. The lose-an-ounce-for-lunch-bunch seems to be all smiles.

UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY MEETING...The Thursday (May 25) meeting of the Assembly resulted in these actions: approved and passed on to the President an Off-Campus Speakers Policy setting forth procedures to be followed by recognized University groups in inviting speakers with a Presidential veto possible only after an inquiry determines a "clear and present danger" to University operation exists. The Executive Committee of the University Assembly was designated the appealing body in case of such request denials...Also approved and sent on to the President was a class audit procedure requiring a fee only if a University record of the audit is desired by the student...In accordance with a new BOG policy calling for a University-wide committee to assist the President in determining if BOG policy and procedures are being followed, the Assembly designated the Executive Committee to perform this function...Defeated, then referred back to the Human Services Committee with recommendations for rewording, was a policy of appeals and grievance...the Assembly also heard a report from the President noting that the Illinois House Appropriations Committee had taken out Phase 2 planning money for GSU. The money was originally appropriated last year but was not released by the Governor. Attempts will be made in the House and, if necessary, Senate, to have the money restored.

GSUings...PAUL HILL addressing the Conference on Career Education in Beverly Hills, Calif. saying among other things that "...it is unrealistic to dream of unlimited expansion of leisure hours while the nightmare of poverty and social problems prevails"...Blood donors at the GSU mini-campus numbered 42 who were accepted from the 52 who showed up...Approximately 100-150 visitors toured the mini-campus at the Mothers Day Open House while tornado warnings were in effect...MANNY CHAVEZ reporting 65 people attending the Small Business Management module, 20 of them taking it for credit...The week of May 14 was proclaimed "Small Business Week" by the President in honor of the more than 8 million small businesses with their 35 million jobs and $370 billion gross...BILL ENGBRETSON and JERRY BAYSORE at Bradley U. for an administrative workshop presenting a case study of university planning with emphasis on the GSU delphi studies...DELORIS SAUNDERS nominated by her alma mater, Morris Brown College of Atlanta to be recognized as one of the "Outstanding Young Women in America"...the May 15 issue of the Chronicle of Higher Education has a front page article on experimental colleges...CHUCK WADE elected as a new member of the Board of Directors of Family Service and Mental Health Center of South Cook County...the Illinois flag on the new GSU flagpole is gratis of Gov. RICHARD OGILVIE...JOE MEREDITH and RON TCHUDI (Indiana U) delivering a paper at the First Mid-Year Regional Conference of the American Society for Information Science at the University of Dayton, "Large Tape Files and the Retrieval Dollar."

OPERATION SEARCH...BURT COLLINS of Coop Ed is running Operation Search Monday evening, June 12, 5-7 p.m. in Room 30B. A seminar designed for all graduating students of GSU, it will provide concrete tips on how to write a resume, cover letter, and handle interviews for that after-graduation job.

GSU COMMUNITY SINGERS...Brad Johnstone, baritone, will be a soloist when the new GSU Community Singers of Governors State University present their first concert, June 4. Mary Beth Davison, alto; Scott Jessen, baritone, and Rosemary Wilkie, soprano, will be soloists for the Flossmoor Community Church Concord Choir, which will appear with the GSU Community Singers at 8:15 p.m. in the Commons.

FLYING HIGH...The Thorn Creek Audubon Society, a new south suburban chapter of the National Audubon Society, will meet on Tuesday, May 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ringing Room of the Park Forest Library. Major purpose of the meeting is to enroll members. Thirty-five new members must be enrolled before a charter will be granted by the national organization. Annual dues, which include a subscription to Audubon, are $15 for a family, $12 for an individual, and $6 for a student membership with dues being tax deductible. A program of slides featuring birds found in the Thorn Creek Woods will also be presented. Anyone who would like to join but is unable to attend may call KIT STRUTHERS at 534-9249 for further info.

DEADLINE FOR COPY...Items for inclusion in FAZE 1 or Events of the Week should be submitted by Thursday noon for Friday distribution, in writing, to the Office of Communications. Items not used because of space limitations will be held for following issues.
