FOCUS...MARY ENDRES...Dr. Mary P. Endres who will be recommended to fill the position of University Vice President for Academic Affairs at the June BHE meeting comes to the University with a varied and rich academic history. She has been at Purdue for 17 years where she was Director of the Purdue Educational Research Center and Chairman of the Division of Elementary Education. She established Purdue's first elementary teacher training program.

She was Superintendent of Schools for District 10 at Woodstock, Illinois where she developed schools for four townships including construction of buildings, curriculum development, staff hiring, and development and organizing community programs. She was also Superintendent of Schools for McHenry County, Illinois.

Recently, she was on leave from Purdue to be Director of Teacher Training at the Urban Education Laboratory in Atlanta, Georgia. Her consultative experience includes advising Mississippi Headstart, primary school specialist to the Nigerian Ministry of Education, and Teacher Training Advisor to the University of Punjab in Pakistan.

At Purdue where she now acts as the Assistant Head of the department in charge of community programs, the Department of Child Development and Family Life, Dr. Endres has taught courses in parent education, human development, educational administration, elementary education, and child care.

Assuming BHE approval in June, Dr. Mary Endres will join the University sometime in August. WELCOME DR. ENDRES!

HIGHER EDUCATION BILL...Governor Ogilvie telegraphed all Illinois university and junior college presidents a couple of weeks ago urging support for the Compromise Higher Education Bill pending in the Congress. Major provisions of the legislation include:

- Direct grants to schools based on the enrollment of low-income students, graduate students, and veterans.
- Federal assistance to state scholarship programs.

- A Student Loan Mortgage Association to provide student loans during periods of high interest rates.
- Support for comprehensive state planning (such as BHE efforts)
- Financial aid for part-time students who are not eligible now.
- A work-study program to provide alternate periods of study and relevant community-based jobs.

GSU DIRECTORY...The Office of Communications has distributed the newly revised GSU directory. The directory, which was generated in coordination with MIS, deletes home phones and home addresses of those who indicated this desire in the Fall, or for those arriving since Fall, on the communications form filled out at the Personnel Office. A modest number of extra copies are available from the Office of Communications. Please report errors to the Office of Communications which will work with MIS to iron out the new system. Names of spouses were inadvertently left off of this edition of the directory.

OFF-CAMPUS SPEAKERS POLICY...The President has implemented the policy passed by the University Assembly designating the Director of Communications to receive requests for speakers. He, along with the University Vice President for Academic Affairs, will make initial recommendations. According to the policy, speakers sponsored by recognized University organizations can only be rejected if there are conflicting University events already scheduled or in the event there may be a "clear and present danger" to the University's operation.

GSU WOMEN...New officers elected May 11 include JOAN LAYZELL as Chairman, JEAN CURTIS, Vice Chairman, BARBARA GALLAGHER, Secretary, LOIS BUTLER, Treasurer, and SHARON SAUNDERS, Publicity. All GSU women staff and students are eligible to join the group which has membership dues of $3.00 per year. The organization has activities varying from bridge to outdoor recreation, has speakers at meetings, is planning an annual picnic, and will hostess the first commencement reception. Activities for GSU Women will now be listed in FAZE 1 which is easily transportable to the woman of your choice.

FAZE 1 MAILING...The current format of FAZE 1 makes it suitable for mailing to vacationing staff or others by the various units. The top part (or masthead) can be used to address the newsletter which can then be folded in thirds. The Office of Communications has been handling a limited number of general mailings.

VISITING ARTISTS...Painter and sculptor BING DAVIS from De Pauw University will give a demonstration and slide talk June 12 and 13 as part of the University's Visiting Artists Series being coordinated by JOHN PAYNE under a matching grant from the National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities...Also on June 12, Ms. MARGARET BURROUGHS will lecture on Afro-American Art and African Art. She will also lecture on June 14th in conjunction with the module, "Black Arts Movement."

VISITOR...Visitor to the GSU campus last week was the noted black sculptor RICHARD HUNT. Hunt toured the permanent campus site and the mini-campus at the invitation of BILL ENGBRETSON.

DEARLY DEPARTING...DAVE SCHUELKE has accepted an appointment as Head of the Department of Rhetoric and Professor of Communications at the University of Minnesota, St. Paul, beginning in September.

CALLING CARTOONISTS...Several people have said they'd like to see some original cartoons about GSU in FAZE 1. Anyone who would like to take a crack at GSU cartooning for FAZE 1 should submit their work to the Office of Communications.

ICC EQUIPMENT...The ICC would appreciate it if all equipment, especially cassette tape recorders, were returned as of June 16 for inventory. If you have special circumstances please let DON LEDIN in the ICC (ext. 285). Equipment will again be available on July 4.

PETALS FELL ON PETALUMA...Most of LRC's collection of phonograph records has now been indexed according to composers, performers, and title words, in a single alphabet. SUE ROBERTS, who has been working on the project, calls it "Meine kleine Schwann." A preliminary version has been placed next to the record racks, for the benefit of most of us who remember only one word of a title. (For instance, "Petals Fell on Petaluma" is listed under petals, fell, Petaluma, as well as Partch, Harry and Gate 5 Ensemble.)

DEADLINE FOR COPY...Items for inclusion in FAZE 1 or Events of the Week should be submitted by Thursday noon for Friday distribution, in writing, to the Office of Communications. Items not used because of space limitations will be held for following issues.
