GSU's String Quartet In Local Area Recitals

Members of the GSU String Quartet and guest pianist Marilyn Bourgeois, of the GSU applied music faculty, presented a free concert for the residents of Garden House of Park Forest on Wednesday, October 20, at 10:30 am.

Participating members of the Quartet were Elmer Rosen, violin; Robert Shamo, viola; and Alan Rostoker, cello. They played "Quartet for Piano, Violin, Viola and Cello," by Gabriel Faure; "Trio in One Movement," by Franz Schubert; and "Amicorum Musices No. 1 for String Trio," by Donald Jenni.

In another concert, Sunday, October 31, at 3:00 pm in the Wayside Chapel of the Community Center Foundation, Palos Park, Rosen, Shamo and Rostoker were joined by first violinist Raya Kodesh-Beatty. The program included a solo performance by Kodesh-Beatty of the "Chaconne for Unaccompanied Violin" from the D Minor Partita by J. S. Bach. The group concluded the program with the "String Quartet in D Minor, ("Quinten")" Op. 76, No. 2 by Haydn.

These recitals were made possible by the GSU Foundation through a special performance grant from Wilkes, Besterfield & Co., Ltd., certified public accountants, Olympia Fields.

GSU Airs Talk Show On Local Cable TV

"GSU Views," a half-hour talk show hosted by Dr. Leo Goodman-Malamuth II, president of Governors State University, was introduced over four southern suburban cable stations during October. The shows will continue through November.

Devoted to discussions of timely topics with members of the GSU faculty and staff, the first three shows covered such widely divergent topics as the November 2 gubernatorial election, practical methods for understanding the persuasion patterns of advertising, and the Polish crisis.

The first stations to broadcast the shows, which are produced in the University's Instructional Communications Center, are Cox Cable, Channel 4 in Park Forest, on Tuesdays at 7:00 pm and Thursdays at 8:30 pm; Joyce Cable, Channel 3 in Joliet, on Mondays and Wednesdays at 7:00 pm; Metrovision, Channel 4 serving such communities as Palos Park, Palos Hills, Worth, Northlake, Melrose Park and Bellwood, started November 1, with subsequent times to be announced; and Kankakee Cable, Channel 6 on Wednesdays at 6:30 pm.

Chicago Mayoral Election Speakers

State Senator William A. Marovitz was the guest speaker on November 3 and Don Rose, Chicago political consultant, will lecture on November 10 for the continuing series on "The Chicago Mayoral Elections --1983" at GSU. Both speakers will lecture in Engbretson Hall at 7:30 pm. The public is invited to these sessions admission free.

Marovitz was first elected to the Illinois Senate in 1980 and represents a constituency in Chicago's northeast side 3rd District. Rose played a crucial role in Jane Byrne's victory over Michael Bilandic in 1979. He is also a free-lance political writer for the Chicago Sun-Times.

The lectures are two of eight which have been scheduled for the Fall Trimester by Paul Green, BPA. They are funded in part by a Title 8 Cooperative Education Program Grant from the U.S. Department of Education.

Dr. Leo Goodman-Malamuth

Dr. Paul Green, BPA, director of the University's Institute for Public Policy and Administration, was Dr. Goodman-Malamuth's first guest. They discussed the effect of redistricting and the November 2 elections.

The second guest on "GSU Views" is Dr. Hugh Rank, CAS, whose book, "The Pitch," was published October 1. He and the president will talk about a simple five-step way to un-

Professional Development Seminar

Paul M. Somers, Champaign, of the Realtors' National Marketing Institute of the National Association of Realtors and a realtor in commercial properties as well as a certified public accountant, will conduct a session entitled "Acquiring a Small Business," from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm on November 17.

Participants will examine how to determine the right business, whether to start from scratch or buy an existing business, and how to obtain information and the capital required for such a venture.

The cost of the seminar is $65.00. The seminar is sponsored by BPA and the Office of Special Programs. For further information, contact Peg Donohue, extension 2549.

derstand the basic pattern of persuasion in advertising seen and/or heard in both print and electronic media.

Marian Marzynski, CAS, producer of the documentary, "Return to Poland," which was seen earlier this year on Public Broadcasting Service stations, will discuss the Polish crisis and the making of documentary films.

In future programs, Dr. Goodman-Malamuth will be host to other GSU personnel who are acknowledged experts in areas of interest to the public. The University is currently negotiating with other cable systems to broaden the distribution of the program.

Tony Labriola, ICC, is producer and director of the series. The production crew is comprised of both faculty members and students at the University.

GSU Women Sponsor Self-Defense Workshop

Kendra Reinshagen, an instructor with Chimera, Inc., Chicago, will conduct a free workshop in self-defense for women at GSU on Wednesday, November 10, at 7:00 pm in the B Lounge. The program is sponsored by the GSU Women's Resource Center.

Chimera is a technique which teaches women the mental strategies as well as physical skills to defend themselves through practice, role playing and discussion. It emphasizes practical, effective solutions, whether the situation is an all-out attack or a more subtle form of sexual harassment.

Students of Chimera learn how to block, kick, strike effectively and break holds. They also are taught the warning signals of an impending attack and the typical rhythm, plans and tactics of an attacker. It is useful to all women, regardless of age, athletic ability or previous experience.

For further information contact the GSU Women's Resource Center at (312) 534-5000, extension 2435.

New GSU Alumni President Outlines Goals

Newly elected GSU Alumni Association President Don Hansen of Richton Park outlined the goals of the new officers and board recently. Among them: to set a record for the third consecutive year in the financial support given to the University by its alumni and to restructure the program offerings for the 8,200 GSU graduates throughout the world.

The new president earned a bachelor's degree in public service and the MA in public administration from GSU. Since 1980, he has been a coordinator in the University's Office of Special Programs and Continuing Education. He has been a member of the alumni board since 1977 and is past vice president of correspondence.

Student Activities Special Events For Nov - Dec Block

The Student Activity Programs Special Events Series has a variety of offerings still to come in the Fall Trimester.

The Film Showcase, GSU's popular movie series, will feature a fine lineup of recent films for Friday evenings November 12 through December 10 in Engbretson Hall, with showings at 5 and 7 pm.

On November 23 the Take Five Cabaret presents student mike/open stage. December 7, the Cabaret will feature Comedy Night with Teddy LeRoI, comedian and Rick Purpura, comic magician.

The GSU Theatre will be the site of Student Activities' special presentation, the Joel Hall Dancers, on Friday and Saturday, December 3 and 4 at 8 pm.

Further information on these events can be obtained by contacting the Student Activities Office at (312) 534-5000, extension 2124.
