LIBRARY GROUP STUDY ROOMS ARE AVAILABLE FOR GSU STUDENTS ONLY

GSU LIBRARY GROUP STUDY ROOM

Two group study/collaboration rooms are now available in the library for GSU students to use during library hours.*

The rooms D2401D (1) and D2401F (2), are designed to give groups of two or more students a place to work together and collaborate. Requests must be made at least 2 days in advance but not more than 7 days. There are two (2) ways to reserve the study rooms:

1. Pick up a form at the library information desk
2. Check out the online form located at:
3. <https://mygsu.govst.edu/studentresources/Library/Lists/Group%20Study/Item/news.aspx?&Source=https%3a//mygsu.govst.edu/studentresources/Library>

“The group study rooms have become a popular destination for students,” said La’Shaunda Williams Ware , IT Manager. “It is important to note that these rooms are only for GSU students who are working on collaborative, group projects. There are no exceptions, “ she offered.

Students, who visit the online reservation form, will be asked to read the Group Study Room Reservation Policy and accept it in order to schedule time. If you have made a request, before 4:00 p.m. on a weekday, you may expect a same day response. Requests made after 4:00 p.m. or on weekends or holidays, will be answered on Monday or the next business day. Same day request will not be processed.
