News and Events

Online Applications Are Go

Effective July 1, 2008, applications for admission to the university can be submitted online for most graduate programs via the web. The undergraduate application is also available online.

Students wishing to apply to one of the following programs, however, need to complete a paper application: graduate programs in Independent Film and Digital Imaging, Counseling, Occupational Therapy, Communications Disorders, and Social Work and doctoral programs in Nursing Practice, Occupational Therapy, Transitional Physical Therapy, and Physical Therapy.

Both online and hard copy application submissions require applicants to pay the associated fee. Online application fees are accepted by credit card or e-check.

GSU SUAA Meeting and Membership

The GSU Chapter of the State Universities Annuity Association will meet on July 17, at noon, in the Cafeteria.

Participation and membership in the State Universities Annuity Association is open to all GSU employees and retirees who are interested in safeguarding pension benefits. Participation is open to all who are building their retirement future in the State Universities Retirement System (SURS). Payroll deduction for current employees and retirees is available.

More information and membership forms are available on the web.

Completed membership forms may be sent to Kathy Miller, FOC-G336, Governors State University, 1 University Parkway, University Park, IL 60466.

Quilters Unite!

The next meeting of the informal quilting group is on July 10, from noon to 1 p.m., on the Library balcony. As a relatively new group, there are still plenty of opportunities for development. Participants are encouraged to bring items for show and tell, things to work on, and their ideas for the group to the meeting. At the last meeting, participants shared projects, discussed the Library bookshelf quilt, and suggested possible names for the group. Bring your ideas and projects and join in the fun.

Elevators Rise to the Occasion

For the past few months, contractors have been busy checking drawings, ordering parts and equipment, and coordinating schedules for the C-Wing elevator reconstruction project. They are now ready to start working on site beginning Monday, July 7. The contractor anticipates that the C-wing elevator will not be available for use through September 2008. A, B, D, E, F and G wing elevators are available, however, only D and G wing public elevators travel to the 3rd floor.
