Wood Hill HERALD

December 1964
The snow of a couple of weeks ago brought back some not so fond memories. During the first winter in Wood Hill with no paved streets the snow got deep and the ruts got deeper. The sound of spinning wheels was the cue for neighbors to struggle into coats and boots and to struggle with the bogged down cars. The worst case (that I remember) was an Olds that got hung up with no wheels on the ground. That one took some doing.

And, while on snow. The snow removal we saw here was done by the Monee Township Road Department. And, for your quiz of the day, did you know that the department has 44 miles of roads--outside of Wood Hill--to clear.

* * *

And, more on snow, during the worst, there were three school buses stuck here on one day.

Add to the nice things that go on at Christmas Time--Jodie Harrison Christmas Cookie Exchange. For the fourth year here, Jodie has her neighbors bring in their favorite holiday goodies, and the girls sample like mad. They tell how the goodies are made.

George Sangmeister, new States Attorney of Will County, has declined to serve as legal representative for the Wood Hill Home Owners' Association. He was selected at the last general meeting. In a letter to the President, Ray Hernandez, he explained that because of his election a question of legal ethics might be involved and felt that he should decline to represent the Association.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Wroblewski should be using a new radio soon. With money raised by the sale of "City Stickers" last year for the purpose, with about $100 promised by Jack Tomberlin, local Farm Manager and Insurance man, plus an additional $30 advanced by the Home Owners' Association against the proposed sale of "city stickers", enough money is available for the purchase. Ray says he hopes to have it installed within the next week or so.

Sympathy is extended to the families of Mrs. Ray Wroblewski, whose father passed away recently; and to the family of Mrs. Nathan (Rose) Cohen.

Mrs. Cohen died November 28 at St. James. She had lived at 1006 Samson Court for the last two years. She is survived by her husband, a son, Michael, and a daughter, Mrs. Adrianne Stahl, and one grandchild.

Good News--*--Happy Enco Dealer Bill Taylor has returned home from St. James after surgery. He has even been seen around the station for short periods of time.

Also home from the hospital is Gino Narcissi. The Narcissi's live at Union and Hickok.

Dear Editor:

I have a club with only a few girls in it. I would like to know if any girls would like to join it.

If they do, will they call Lynn Coon, phone number 534-6397, or they can come to 809 Union Drive.

It is for girls aged 6 years old up to 10 years old.

We do different things every day. Sometimes we make presents for parents.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS.

The Wood Hill Vol. Fire Dept. wishes to express their gratitude and thanks to all who have given to the fund drive, and also to everyone who has contributed by coming out to their dinners, dances, and the affairs held by the Wood Hill Vol. Fire Dept. Auxilliary.

This year's pledges amounted to $1,823.25. This figure is not 100% of the people who live in Wood Hill or the Wood Hill area. Of the above figure, 84% was collected.

The only way for this department to function or to grow and improve to help you, is by your generous donations. Help yourself to a better fire department by making next years pledges 100%.

Thanks,

FIRE DEPT. AUXILLIARY

Have your 5th and 6th graders been talking up a coloring contest? For the first time in months, we feel a little smarter than our Monee students. We know something they don't, and we keep nothing to ourselves. The 5th and 6th graders in Monee have all entered a coloring contest sponsored by the Dixie Dairy (sound familiar?). The list of winners will be posted in the windows of the Monee Coffee Shop and Bill Taylor's Enco Station. The pictures will be judged by the Principal and Teachers of Monee School and the two best from each room will receive a quart of eggnog and an album of Christmas Carols.

Christmas vacation for students of Dist. 201-U is December 24th to January 3rd. Good Luck!
