Children's Groups Present Christmas Concert

The Governors State University Children's Chorus concert on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 4 pm will mark a number of firsts in the history of the youthful group.

It will be the first of what is expected to be an annual series of midwinter concerts. The Children's Chorus made its debut at GSU early this year.

It will mark the first performance of Melody Bells, an ensemble of 13 children from kindergarten through second grade.

The 34 members of the Children's Chorus will appear for the first time in their new uniforms.

Premiere renditions of three pieces by the founder and director, Mary Ellen Pinzino are on the program. They are "Choral Fanfare," "Cotton Eyed Joe" and "The Little Prince." The accompaniments for these new songs have been arranged by Donald Beattie, director of piano pedagogy at Southern Illinois University.

The program will consist of familiar Christmas carols, as well as other traditional and contemporary music. The children also will lead the adults in the singing of several other carols. In addition, there will be an instrumental ensemble comprised of seven of the youngsters of the Chorus. There is a charge of $1.00 for admission to the program in the GSU Theatre.

The children's music activities will extend into the following week, when the chorus will go caroling through the halls of the university on Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 4:30 pm.

GSU sponsors the GSU Children's Chorus and other children's musical activities as a public service to the southern suburbs of Metropolitan Chicago.

Legislators Breakfast With GSU's President

Dr. Leo Goodman-Malamuth II hosted a series of breakfasts recently for elected officials from the region served by the university. The breakfasts, held in the President's Conference Room were most useful, according to Goodman-Malamuth.

"We covered a host of important topics at these breakfasts," he stated. "We enlisted the support of our senators and representatives in our efforts to re-clad GSU's exterior. Legislative prospects for the upcoming session were discussed. And, most importantly, we were able to engage in an in-depth sharing of information about Govern-

nors State University."

"Each legislator, I believe, left the campus well informed about GSU," he said. "I am very grateful to these friends of Governors State who took the time to come out to the campus and break bread with us."
