

1981

Honorary Degree Citation: Julia M. Walsh

Governors State University

Follow this and additional works at: <http://opus.govst.edu/commencements>

Recommended Citation

Governors State University, "Honorary Degree Citation: Julia M. Walsh" (1981). Commencements. Paper 62.
<http://opus.govst.edu/commencements/62>

This Citation is brought to you for free and open access by the Commencement at OPUS Open Portal to University Scholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in Commencements by an authorized administrator of OPUS Open Portal to University Scholarship. For more information, please contact opus@govst.edu.

Granted 1981

JULIA M. WALSH

Julia M. Walsh, Chairman of the Board, Julie M. Walsh and Sons, Inc., grandmother, mother of 12 children, and a lady of the first magnitude, is the first lady of America's financial community.

Distinguished citizen, civic leader, and renowned member of the financial community whose imagination, creativity, determination, and skill have gained her the respect and admiration of the entire corporate world.

You have achieved much since you left Akron to become the first woman graduate of the Harvard Business School Program in Advanced Management, the first woman Governor of the American Stock Exchange, and the first woman Director of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

You have put your skills and wisdom at work to build a financial firm which ranks as one of America's finest and enjoys the unique name, Julia M. Walsh and Sons, Incorporated. You have used your knowledge and wisdom to help others by developing appropriate investment portfolios for schools, rest homes, and charitable organizations. You have given of yourself by building opportunities for others by serving on board of universities, religious institutions, and community and business associations.

Most importantly, your life is a model for all. You have served as a diplomat for civilization by the conduct of your career and your personal life. You have taught us all that success and family are indeed a compatible way of life.

You serve as an inspiration to us--the youngest of Illinois' State Universities--because you have demonstrated again that effort, education, application, and wisdom can indeed lead to the realization of the American Dream.

Governors State University, which dreams no small dreams, salutes you.