Granted 1984

BERNARD ROIZMAN

Able investigator in the fields of Microbiology and Virology; comprehensive student of Biological Sciences, distinguished for your masterly leadership in the conceptualization of the taxonomy of viruses; seminal searcher for the cause and cure of herpes virus; accomplished scholar and research scientist of rare acumen, whose productivity is distinguished both in the development of knowledge and in the application thereof and whose inspiring influence is conspicuous among the ranks of eminent scientists; Professor Roizman, for these services and especially for the new insights which your research has given into the nature of Virology and the new stimulus which you have provided to the development of human thought and the elimination of human suffering, our university, Governors State University, is delighted to honor you.
