CONESTOGA: GSU/SSU STYLE...Is Community College Frontiers, a brand new professional magazine sponsored by GSU and Sangamon State University. Pres. WILLIAM ENGBRETSON and SSU Pres. ROBERT C. SPENCER introduced the new publication with a joint announcement in its first issue: "...This publication exemplifies our common concern as cooperating senior institutions; it is also an expression of our commitment to many other joint efforts with the State's community and junior colleges in implementing the recommendations of the Master Plan and expanding educational opportunity..." Published three times a year, the journal will enhance efforts to work closely with the community college system. The magazine staff includes J. RICHARD JOHNSTON, SSU, editor, with GSU's AL MARTIN (JCR) and G. ERNEST GIESECKE, SSU, as editorial advisors.

SOMETHING'S FISHY...in CEAS. Walk on over to EAS's large open lab and see the live fish caught by students in JON MENDELSON's module, Readings and Investigations in the Ecology of Fishes. Species on display are the same ones you'll find in your own local streams.

BHE AND THEE...Informal discussion topic at the April BHE meeting last week in Chicago was the resignation of James Holderman, Executive Director. Holderman accepted a grant from Lilly Foundation to write a book on Illinois higher education and Master Plan Phase III. At the meeting itself, Dr. Cameron West, Vice President at N. Carolina, was offered the opportunity to become the new Executive Director...BHE didn't act on revised budget figures that reflect Gov. Walker's reduced recommendations for the originally-passed BHE FY 74 operating budget. BHE will study the matter further and meet with Walker and his staff in an attempt to restore some of the money taken out, including salary increase monies.

IS THE MAILMAN A PERSON-PERSON?...The campus mailroom is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. for handling intra-campus and U.S. mail. Why not keep in mind its daily schedule for postal service:
Incoming U.S. Mail-9:15 and 11:00 a.m.
Outgoing U.S. Mail-10:30 a.m., 4:15 p.m.
Deliveries to Planning Bldg. and Hantack House-8:45 a.m. (Pick-up only), 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m.; and a 4:15 p.m. delivery and pick-up of final U.S. Mail for Post Office only.

IT'S LOVE...In the 20th Century that Stokeley Carmichael will discuss when he lectures in the Commons Wednesday, April 11, at 1 p.m. Giving insight and spirit to all present, he'll bring a message of love, respect, and the power of the Black spirit, for all people to gain an understanding of the plight of African peoples throughout the world. The program is presented by Union of African People, a GSU student organization headed by ANTHONY JOHNSON with ART EVANS (CHLD) faculty sponsor.

GSU NEIGHBOR NEEDS HELP...Last week a fire, burning undiscovered in the fog, completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. RAY DAVIS and their two children, RAY JR. and RHONDA. The Davises, who lived on the Thompson Farms, lost nearly all their belongings in the blaze. They're GSU neighbors and we'd like to help in some way. Gifts of furniture, clothing, food, or money would be deeply appreciated. Items needed include curtains, bedspreads, lamps, double bed, mattress, dresser, rugs, pots/pans, cooking utensils, clothes for boy size 8, girl, size 16; men's work clothes, size 40; woman's size 18-1/2 dresses. JOAN LAYZELL and BETTY ANDREWS of GSU Women are conducting a telephone campaign to assist the Davis family. Items can be delivered to Office of Communications (ext. 221-222) or to JANET MUCHNIK, 51 Apple Lane, Park Forest (481-4718). Won't you help?

NOT GREEN EGGS AND HAM...But Theology for Lunch examining "Religion According to Dr. Seuss" in a slide presentation by the Rev. ROBERT KLEPPER of Chicago Heights Monday, April 9, at noon in the mini-conference room. Dr. Seuss fans and foes are welcome. Bring a bag lunch.

OH, MY ACHING HEAD...SINUS problems? The recording barometer in EAS (displayed among the rocks, etc.) stayed way down around 29.5 for over 48 hours from Saturday till Monday -- longest period of low readings since it was set up last July. Since Monday it's gone up ever so slightly. If you've had sinus problems lately, this long low and the type of weather than can go along with it could cause those pains in your head. Thank you, BOB JENSEN (CEAS).

FAZE 1 HOMEWARD BOUND...FAZE 1 is designed not only for staff and faculty but also for spouses, mates, etc., whom you may meet at home on occasion. Why not take it home and keep everyone informed. And, it can be folded into thirds and mailed, with the masthead forming a return address. Staff appointed but not yet on board and some on vacation have requested units to mail FAZE 1 to them each week.

GSUings...MICHAEL COHEN (CBPS) having "Effects of a College Course in the Politics of Race on Students' Attitudes Toward Blacks" published in Journal of Politics; "An Empirical Foundation for an Explanation of Organizational Mobility," in Human Organization...NICK RICHIE (CEAS) representing GSU at a medical seminar, St. James Hospital, Chicago Hts...BETTY STANLEY and RON BRUBAKER (both CEAS) attending Pittsburgh Conference on Analytical Chemistry and Applied Spectroscopy in Cleveland...JERRY WARTGOW (R & I) presenting a paper at Society for College and University Planning spring conference; also panel moderating: "Use of Computerized Cost Simulation Models in Higher Education."...MANUEL CHAVEZ (CBPS) serving as resource specialist to First National Spanish Speaking Business Development Conference in Chicago...TED ANDREWS (CEAS) writing article for February The Futurist: "PRT: Urban Transportation of the Future"...PATRICK SHEAHAN (CBPS) taking oath as recording secretary for Alpha Phi Chapter, Delta Pi Epsilon, business education research and honorary scholastic fraternity...PETER FENNER (CEAS) writing "Opportunities Are What You Make of 'Em" in Journal of Geological Education...ELMER WITT (Campus Minister) studying campus ministries in Detroit for Lutheran Council/USA and describing GSU to president and provosts of Wayne State University. (35,000 mostly commuter students.)

WHAT THEY'RE READING ON CAMPUSES

	Previous Month
1. Jonathan Livingston Seagull, by Richard Bach	1
2. Chariots of the Gods, by Erich von Daniken	3
3. I'm OK, You're OK: A Practical Guide to Transactional Analysis, by Thomas A. Harris	2
4. A Separate Reality, by Carlos Castaneda	4
5. Journey to Ixtlan, by Carlos Castaneda	6
6. The Teachings of Don Juan, by Carlos Castaneda	7

8. Dr. Atkins' Diet Revolution, by Robert C. Atkins	—
9. Gods from Outer Space, by Erich von Daniken	—
10. The Best and the Brightest, by David Halberstam	10

BROWSING IS SPOKEN HERE...In the GSU Bookstore, where you can get all these books but Dr. Atkins' Diet Revolution and Gods from Outer Space. Jonathon Livingston Seagull was sold out, but is on order. The LRC has everything on the list except the two von Daniken titles. By the way, DICK NEWMAN (LRC) suggested that we not include call numbers here because they really don't make good reading.

LET'S HEAR IT FOR EARTHLY PLEASURES...Observing National Earth Week, April 8-15, BALANCE plans a five-day series of related activities that appeal to all ages and backgrounds in the GSU Community. The environmental club has scheduled these several presentations: Monday, April 9: Dr. Eugene Schwartz, author and lecturer, will speak on the effects of modern technology on the quality of life. Tuesday, April 10: Longwood Elementary School environmental puppet show; written, produced, and performed by the school children. Wednesday, April 11: LOUIS ROME, League of Women Voters, and STEVEN KLINE of the new Environmental Lawyers Clinic will talk about environmental laws and what citizens can do to help the environment. Thursday, April 12: DR. MOORE, Vice-President of George Williams College, will explain that College's new mini national park and Environmental Education Program. Saturday, April 14: DR. DAVE of Park Forest South will discuss the Eastern philosophy of man and nature, which will be followed by a sitar concert and light show by Patrik Marks, master sitarist from India. All activities will be held at GSU.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY ASSEMBLY...EDWARD MILLER (CEAS) has been elected Faculty-at-Large Representative to the UA. He'll take his seat at the next meeting, April 19.

WHERE OH WHERE...For anyone who wishes to answer those Red Cross requests, the address is American National Red Cross, 222 N. Broadway, Joliet 60435

YOU AND I CAN HEAR U OF I...Professors DAVID SOKOL and GEORGE WEAD if we're early birds. Open to students/faculty/staff are two mini modules sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts Visiting Artists and Lecturers on Art, on a first enrolled, first served basis. The mini modules are offered with 0-2 credits and are open to any interested GSUers. More specifically, they are Modern Art: 1945-1972 (history seminar), Wednesday, 9 to 10:20 a.m., coordinated by Sokol; and History of the Film, Wead. You may either audit or take these modules, presented via seminar-lecture approach. Meeting one day a week for six weeks, each can accommodate 15. For more information, contact JOHN PAYNE (CCS) Ex. 255.

"That there should be nothing at all is utterly impossible. The mind, let it stretch its conceptions so far, can never so much as bring itself to conceive of a state of perfect nothing."

--Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758)

GONE, BUT NOT FORGETTING...JOHN MINDER, former superintendent of GSU Building and Plant Operations, will discuss GSU during The Building Team Conference in Chicago. He'll participate in the Owners "Tell It Like It Is" panel when the group meets in Chicago this month.

AT LAST TALLY...No one in South Dakota had reported income higher than $500,000.
