GSU JAZZ IN RECORD SWEEP AT NOTRE...Governors State established itself as a national force in American collegial jazz by winning a record nine awards at the nationally renowned Notre Dame Jazz Festival last week. The previous record was seven won by the University of Illinois. GSU won four awards last year at Notre Dame leading to an invitation to GSU to be one of the U.S. representatives to an international festival in Switzerland. Winning for GSU were:

- GSU Big Band-----Outstanding Performance
- GSU Combo-----Outstanding Performance
- Vince Carter-----Best Reed Soloist
- Walter Henderson-----Best Trumpet
- Ron Askew-----Honorable Mention Guitarist
- John Pate-----Honorable Mention Piano
- Curtis Prince-----Best Drummer
- John Pate-----Best Composer/Arranger
- Billy Howell-----Best Trombone

Competing against GSU in 1974 were Bowdoin College, U. of Illinois, Indiana U., Jersey City State College, College of Lake County, Loyola Univ., Malcolm X College, Mass. Institute of Technology, U. of Michigan, U. of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Univ. of Texas, Waubensee College, W. Virginia Univ., Univ. of Wisconsin, and Youngstown State Univ. Three of the competitors will make appearances in the 3rd annual GSU junior college jazz festival on May 3 and 4: Lake County, Malcolm X and Waubensee. Seven others round out a field of 10 for the event which will now take on special significance with the special performances of the record setting GSU jazz. (Semi-finals will be May 3 at 6:30 p.m. and May 4 at 1 p.m. with finals at 8 p.m. on May 4. Student admission is $1.50 for each session and general admission for each is $2.00).
