New Business:

Jeff Brownfield, Executive Director of the State University Civil Service Systems spoke to the group. He encouraged everyone to ask questions. The System manages the State Universities and associated agencies. They are currently working on class specs and exams and continue to collaborate with various State Universities HR department. Entry level positions require more knowledge-based exams while other positions require credential assessments. Different classifications are defined on their website. HR departments often reach out to the systems office to determine the correct classifications. Not all classifications apply to each University in the system. The system has worked with HR departments to correctly classify miss classified AP employees that should be Civil Service as civil service employees. Different benefits allowed to civil service employees was also discussed.
