It's a Hard Knock Life...

This week, the Center for Performing Arts is hosting its annual summer camp for kids. Children ages eight to thirteen are working with musical theatre professionals from Evanston's Light Opera Works. The company "provides a great experience for the kids, their families, and patrons of the show," said Burt Dikelsky, director of The Center.

The camp culminates in a performance of the family classic Annie, on Friday, June 26, at 7 p.m., in The Center for Performing Arts. Tickets are still available. Call the box office at 708.235.2222 or visit www.centertickets.net.

Summer Tours of NMSP

Summertime is the ideal time to discover the Nathan Manilow Sculpture Park. Free guided tours of the park will take place on the first and third Sundays of the month.

Tours on July 5 and August 16 highlight the sculptures on the north section of the park. Tours on July 19 and August 16 feature the artwork on the south section. Tours begin at 2 p.m. and last from one and a half to two hours.

Visitors are asked to gather on the patio outside the Hall of Governors. Comfortable footwear is recommended as there is extensive walking and occasionally the paths are uneven.
