Welcome Jaguar family and friends to the “Class of 2023” Commencement Ceremony. Congratulations to the students who made this academic journey and are here to celebrate their success today!

Welcome Jaguar family and friends to this momentous and traditional occasion – the Class of 2023 Commencement Ceremony. Congratulations to the students who have achieved this academic milestone, but also to their family and friends who also made this day possible!

This year has presented Governors State University with many positive experiences; yet, for some, profound life lessons and sadness. Notwithstanding, everyone who is here today, is here to celebrate those who are walking across the stage in front of their family and friends – a monumental achievement!

Your achievement today, represents not only your success, but the success of the faculty of Governors State University, the success of everyone on campus regardless of their position, or who happened to be there at just the right moment for you. Everyone here today, cares about your success and understands the challenges you faced getting to this point.

Why is your graduation today so important and why is it something to be celebrated? Your graduation today places you into a 23.5% category of those across the nation who have a bachelor’s degree and for some of you today, you will also join those elite individuals who hold a master’s or doctoral degree – you will be part of the 14.4% who have achieved a higher degree, as posted by the Bureau of Labor and Statistics .

As we move through the celebration of today’s graduates, let us all take a moment to remember our own day of celebration and the many opportunities we have experienced, and we wish for you to keep in mind, there are many who have not had this opportunity, for whatever reason. We are thankful that Illinois continues with a Thriving Illinois that promotes equity and equality for everyone interested in continuing their education.

I am thankful that the State of Illinois and this country is moving in the right direction in supporting higher education. This promotes social mobility and serves as an economic driver for this region and beyond.

Allow me a moment to thank those of you who have made today happen. Thanks to all the graduates who persisted and had the tenacity to keep moving forward.

Thanks to the faculty and staff who have taught, guided, supported, and provided you with the gift of consult and time, such a rare commodity in today’s dynamic and fluid environment.

I am thankful to everyone who has shared their time and talents to help make this day a reality. I am thankful to those who picked you up gently by the shoulder and encouraged you to continue, I am thankful that many of you served in leadership roles to help your constituents and colleagues march forward. I am thankful for everyone’s family and friends who gave you that helping hand, just at the right moment, when you needed that little nudge of support.

All of you walking across the stage today – this is a day of celebration in your lifelong journey. Please take a moment and thank those who have helped you with your journey and please continue to be a lifelong learner. Please share your talents with others and please stay in touch with your family here at GSU. I hope you continue to be an active constituent of GSU and that you will help those who are following in your footsteps.

Once you walk across the stage, you will be the newest members of the GSU Alumni Association, and we hope you will continue your affiliation with GSU and support future students at Governors State University. Thanks to all of you today and remember GSU will always be your Alma Mater.

The Mace

The governor's mace, traditionally carried by the Faculty Senate President who leads the academic procession, is a symbol of the authority of the university as a degree-granting institution. The legal authority of the university is grounded in the intellectual authority of the distinguished faculty who follow in the procession.

In antiquity, the mace was a weapon used to establish the "authority" of the physically strong. Its transformation into a symbol of intellectual authority is both a tribute to and a reminder of the civilizing force of a university's teaching, research and community service functions.

Engraved on the four side-panels of the governor's mace are the seal of the State of Illinois; a cardinal, the state bird; the seal of the former Illinois Board of Governors Universities; and an inscription which reads "The governor's mace, a symbol of tradition and authority of Governors State University, dedicated to the search for excellence in the pursuit of truth, knowledge and the love of learning. Presented by Peter Levin, friend of the university, June 2, 1979."

Atop the mace is a silver rendition of the university logo. The three sides of the "triangle" symbolize the university's teaching, research and community service functions. The three lines visually suggest the shape of a rocket; reminding us both that the university was founded within days of Neil Armstrong setting foot on the moon and that the university is a hope-filled, pioneering community, committed to a better future for all men and women. The circle symbolizes the fact that the university is, indeed, a community. Finally, the fact that the tips of the triangle reach beyond the circle indicates the university's outreach into the region, state and nation, and its commitment to teaching, research and community service.

Academic Regalia

During the commencement ceremony, students and faculty wear academic costumes indicating the wearers' degrees, colleges/universities, and fields of study.

The Cap

The black mortarboard type is the most common cap worn. Degree candidates wear cap tassels that are black and white, the university colors. Colors worn by the faculty vary according to their fields of study.

The Gown

Gowns are of three kinds. The bachelor's gown is relatively simple, with lines falling straight from a fairly elaborate yoke. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeve. Braided silken cords are worn by students who have achieved special scholastic recognition. The master's and specialist's gowns have sleeves, with a back end extending down below the knee in a crescent shape. The doctoral gown is an elaborate costume with velvet panels down the front and around the neck and three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves.

The Hood

The official colors of the college or university from which a degree is conferred are represented in the lining of the hood. For each field of study, there is a corresponding trim color. While each program of study has a specific color, some programs display the same color. The repetitive color reflects the college (ex. Addictions Studies and Communication Disorders graduates earn a Master of Health Science for which the hood color is Salmon Pink). The trim colors for doctoral and master's hoods are as follows:

Acknowledgments

We are beyond thrilled to welcome everyone to our 2023 Commencement Celebration. This time-honored tradition celebrates the collective efforts of graduates, their families, faculty, staff, and special guests to achieve significant academic goals. Here at GSU, we never tire of this day and what it represents.

Like our graduates, this day is the culmination of many hours of hard work, strategic planning and executing the plans. This year has been met with multiple opportunities, with some sadness along the way, but clearly demonstrates the resilience of our entire Governors State University community.

We celebrate alongside our exceptional, skilled, and confident graduates as they transition to the new designation of proud GSU alumni. Their continued success as responsible citizens in our global society continues to make us proud and we look to the future and can only visualize the many accomplishments and attributes each and every one will bring to their many communities, here and beyond.

This grand ceremony is possible because of the energy, time, and effort of our entire staff, faculty, volunteers, business partners and vendors. Their helping hands hold noble character and dedication to the students, graduates, and University.

We applaud the success of our students, faculty and staff and want to thank everyone who participated in the journey of the students and those who have and continue to support the campus community!

Everyone, thank you for a job well done! It has been a great academic year.

National Anthem
Star Spangled Banner

Francis Scott Key

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Black National Anthem
Lift Every Voice and Sing

J. Rosamond Johnson and James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing
Till earth and heaven ring
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea

God of our weary years
God of our silent tears
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way
Thou who has by Thy might Led us into the light
Keep us forever in the path, we pray

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee
Shadowed beneath Thy hand
May we forever stand
True to our God
True to our native land
Our native land
