Course Overview

This course is designed to help you become more effective in exchanging ideas and information through speaking, writing, and listening. Since the majority of students in the course are business majors, the materials and assignments are designed for business and administrative environments.

This is a course in business communication, not creative writing. Consequently, language use will be more conventional and the forms and formats more standardized. The conventions of written English -- spelling, punctuation, grammar, syntax and organization -- are even more important in the business environment than in creative writing, and those conventions will be emphasized. The course will focus on the various forms of business communication -- letters, memoranda, reports, formal speeches and informal presentations.

You will have writing assignments each week and will make at least one oral presentation to the class. You will have several alternatives for the oral reports. There will be unannounced quizzes from time to time to encourage you to keep current with the assignments. You will prepare a personal resume' and cover letter to a potential employer, and you will write a major report on a business subject specified by the instructor. There will be no mid-term or final examinations as such. Rather, certain in-class writing assignments will be "weighted" more heavily than others. The quality of all of your communication assignments, but especially the in-class writing, will determine your final grade.
Course Objectives:
* Recognize and apply the qualities of unity, tone, organization, coherence and emphasis in oral and written communication.
* Use appropriate, correct language and punctuation in writing, proofreading, and editing business communications.
* Recognize and use acceptable style and formats for business letters, memos, and reports.
* Analyze and interpret various communication barriers.
* Listen effectively
* Apply appropriate business communication skills to organizational communication problems.
* Prepare and present informational and analytical business reports using oral, visual, and written media.
* Formulate effective communications for typical business situations.
* Prepare an effective job resume and personal application letter.
* Prepare and present an oral report(s).

Attendance: You are expected to attend class regularly. Part of your grade will be based on class participation, and there will be no make-ups for the quizzes and in-class assignments.

Assignments: All homework assignments are to be typed. (I strongly suggest a word processor.) Work submitted after the end of the class on the date due will be reduced by one letter grade for each week it is late.

Evaluation: Written assignments (homework and in-class) 65%
Certain in-class work will be weighted more heavily.
Major written report 15%
Oral Report(s) 10%
Unannounced quizzes 10%
Class participation will be used to determine final grades in borderline situations.

The quizzes will receive a numerical grade. All other work will be graded in a holistic fashion with "+"s and "-"s (A-, B+, etc.). Some in-class assignments may be weighted more than others. You will be informed of specially weighted assignments. Although I will grade the major written report and you may review my comments, it will not be returned to you.
