When a man won't listen to his conscience, it's probably because he doesn't want advice from a total stranger.

MS...HAVEN'T WE MET BEFORE?...Nellie Bly, Eleanor of Aquitaine, Maria Montessori, and Emmeline Pankhurst, four liberated women out of history, return to open a series of women's studies "International Women's Year" programs at GSU on Oct. 10. Muriel Bach, actress and author, will bring her one-woman theatre to the University Friday at 8 p.m. in the GSU theatre. Truly a one-woman show, Ms. Bach does all her own research, writing and costume designing in addition to her portrayal of famous women. She is co-director of Chappell-Bach Assoc. in Chicago, specializing in writing, directing and producing theatrical productions, and appears in TV, radio, and industrial films. General admission is $1.50, students $1.00. Tickets available by mail or at the box office Oct. 10, 7 p.m. For more info, call ext. 2427, 9 a.m. - Noon.

MINI-GRANT DEADLINE...The R&I/GSU Mini-Grant program will again provide "seed" support for faculty and student research and scholarly projects. Guidelines and application forms which explain the areas and limitations of support are available from Bob Krebs, Coordinator of Special Projects, R&I. The deadline for submission of proposals is October 15, 1975. It is suggested that you discuss your project with Dr. Krebs before submitting the final request.

"FAIR SHARE" SOUGHT...Within the next few weeks, the entire GSU staff will be asked to contribute to the Crusade of Mercy, one of the most effective charitable organizations in the Chicago area. Staff members who have volunteered as Crusade fund-raisers will visit all GSU employees at work to discuss the Crusade's objectives. Since this is a worthwhile cause, GSU'ers are encouraged to pledge their "fair-share" to the Crusade of Mercy's 1975 campaign.

ILLINOIS MASTER PLAN IV...for higher education: copies of the BHE staff draft are available in the President's Office. The document is rather large and hence, a limited number of copies were reproduced. The document may be checked out of the office for a maximum of 24 hours. You are invited to study it and make comments to David Curtis. GSU will respond to the draft through the BOG Executive Officer.
