Governors State University Hosts Adjunct Faculty Job Fair in Kankakee

University Park, September 11, 2006 - Governors State University will host an adjunct faculty job fair on Wednesday, September 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. at its new GSU Kankakee Education Center, located in the Clock Tower Centre building, 187 South Schuyler Avenue, Kankakee.

Those interested in teaching graduate, undergraduate, or professional development courses for Governors State University in Kankakee are invited to attend. Representatives from the Criminal Justice B.A. program, Communication B.A. program, College of Education, and College of Business and Public Administration will be available to discuss teaching opportunities. Qualifications for adjunct faculty members can be found at www.govst.edu/kec.

The adjunct faculty job fair begins at 6 p.m. in room 310 of the Clock Tower Building. Interested educators are encouraged to bring copies of their resumes and unofficial college transcripts with them.
