Jaguar golf teams begin spring schedules

The Governors State men's and women's golf teams have resumed their 2021-22 campaigns following a fourth-month winter break.

Both squads took part in six tournaments during the fall term before returning to action March 25-26, participating at the Olivet Nazarene Spring Invitational in Bourbonnais.

The Jaguar men are headlined by returning All-CCAC selection Patrick Guilfoyle, who leads the team with a 77.2 scoring average. The Jaguar roster is also comprised of: Kevin Kompier, Connor Shepard, Hillel Watkins and Adam Taylor, who just finished his first year with the basketball team.

The GSU women are led by senior Sedona Smith, who's been the team's low scorer in eight events over the past two seasons. She is joined by Kylie Maloney and Kaycee Sain.

The GSU women won't have to travel far for the CCAC Championships, which take place at the Ravisloe Country Club in Homewood April 21-22.

"It's our goal to continue to raise the competitive levels of our teams," says GSU Head Coach Fred Hawkins. "We made some good strides in the fall and look to continue that momentum as we prepare for the conference tournaments in late April."
