VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED...for membership on the Civil Service Compensation Advisory Committee now being formed. In accordance with the Civil Service Compensation Plan passed by the University Assembly January 19 and partially approved by the President, an advisory committee will be charged with establishing a step pay plan. This advisory committee will also be responsible for making policy recommendations, and for periodically reviewing the system's operations. Make up of the committee as specified in the Plan calls for 4 exempt and one non-exempt employee from a non-negotiated class. If interested, contact Joyce Bluth, ext. 2467 by Feb. 25.

OPEN HOUSE...EAS will hold an Open House Tuesday, March 1 to introduce community college instructors to curriculum planning relating to the human environment program. Held from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. the program will include lunch and a tour of GSU. For further info contact Efraim Gil X2479.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK...will be observed at Theology for Lunch, Wed. Feb. 23 with a Special Celebration--Honoring Christians and Jews and others working for the dignity and rights of humankind. Everyone is welcome--in Rm. D1120.

NEW MASTERS PROGRAM...University students in the Chicago metropolitan area can now pursue a cooperative master of arts degree in educational administration and supervision. The new program will be offered by GSU, Chicago State University and Northeastern Illinois University. Students may take course work at all three universities, but the degree will be granted by Chicago State Univ., which is only the second university in Illinois to have an approved chief school business official endorsement.

RECORDING ARTIST AT GSU...Buck Owens, Country Music's number one artist five years in a row and host of TV's "Hee Haw," will appear in concert Friday, March 4. A twenty year veteran in the entertainment business, he has had more than 26 consecutive number one hit recordings and 12 albums number one on the charts. Two concerts will be given--8:00 and 10:00 p.m.--in the University gymnasium. Tickets are now on sale in the Information Office. General admission is $7.00, student tickets are $4.00. For further info contact Student Services X2141.

CASE OF THE MISSING TRAYS...The GSU cafeteria reports that trays are disappearing at an alarming rate--originally numbering 720 there are presently 50 trays remaining. GSUers are requested to please return borrowed trays as soon as possible.
