STUDENT ELECTIONS SET . . .

Nov. 6-9 has been set for elections for two student rep positions. Votes may be cast in the Hall of Governors between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Students are being sought to serve one year terms as reps to the BOG (non-voting) and to the Student Advisory Committee to the IBHE. Nominating petitions will be available in the University Assembly Office or the Student Activities Office beginning Oct. 30. Deadline for submission is 5 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 3. Candidates must be in academic good standing to qualify.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE . . . will be the subject of a panel discussion at GSU Nov. 1, presented by the guest lecture series of the Health Services Administration. The discussion will allow students, faculty, alumni, and the community the opportunity to examine and compare the concept of Nat'l. Health Insurance from the perspectives of three different segments of the health care community: the provider, the third party payer, and the federal government. Featured panelists include Julia Attwood, Deputy Regional Health Administrator, Region V, Public Health Service, DHEW; Richard Epstein, VP and Executive Counsel of the American Hospital Assoc.; Marshall Crawford, VP of Blue Cross/Blue Shield Assoc. An informal reception at 6:30 p.m. in the EAS Commons, will precede the program which will begin at 7:30 p.m. For further info call Brian Malec, Ext. 2482

MULLIGAN PLAYS . . .

One of the most famous saxophonists in the history of jazz will perform at GSU Saturday, October 28. A Gerry Mulligan jazz concert was a last-minute offer accepted for 8 p.m. in the GSU Gym. Gerry's records include five concert jazz albums, two sextet albums, numerous quartet albums, and two albums with Paul Desmond. His most recent recordings include a series with Dave Brubeck and his own "Age of Steam" on A. & M. Records.

On sale at the cashier's office are $3 tickets for all students and $4.50 tickets for all others. Further info is available from Debbie Dougan, Ext. 2458, in CCS.
