CAREER INFO DAY . . .

Eighteen agencies will participate in the annual governmental career information day at GSU Monday, December 4.

Free to the public and students, governmental career information day is scheduled for 2 to 7 p.m. in the Hall of Governors.

Federal, state, and local government agencies will tell procedures used in applying for positions, and the kinds of career positions available within the agencies.

Each agency will have separate tables for individuals to ask specific questions. In addition, each agency will make group presentations on a rotating basis, so information can be disseminated to large groups. For this reason, persons can come or leave as they choose within the specified hours.

Agencies hiring accountants are scheduled from 2-2:30 and 5-5:30 p.m.; law enforcement agencies from 2:40-2:50 and 5:40-5:50 p.m.; scientists and environmentalists will be interested in agencies speaking from 3-3:30 and 6-6:30 p.m.

Members of the public as well as students may drop by the agency of their choice.

For further info call Ext. 2163.

THE ARTS AT GSU . . .

A WEDNESDAY FOR WOMEN . . . The GSU Women's Resource Center is sponsoring a special all-day program for women on Wed., Dec. 6, in Engbretson Hall. Films of interest to women will be shown from 9:00 to noon followed by a Brown Bag lunch accompanied by women's music. From 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Phyllis Janik of the Illinois Arts Council will present a Poetry Workshop in which she will discuss essentials of good writing and offer feedback on any poetry the participants wish to submit to the Women's Resource Center by Dec. 5. She will also read original poetry and provide writing exercises for the participants.

Ms. Janik is an Assoc. Professor in Literature and Humanities at Moraine Valley College, has an MFA from the U. of Iowa, and received an Illinois Literary award for "Jane" in 1978. She has published three books of poetry and has presented readings at several universities.

There will be no charge for the program.

The Women's Resource Center is open daily from 9:00 to 9:00 except Fridays when it closes at 5:00 p.m. For more information call Anne Gerhart at Ext. 2435.

THE CONTEMPORARY ARTS QUARTET . . . will appear in concert on Sunday, December 10, 1978 at 4:00 p.m. at GSU. The String Quartet is comprised of members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

The Contemporary Arts Quartet, now in its 11th year, appears regularly on the Orchestra Chamber Music Series. The Quartet was selected in 1974 as the only Chamber Ensemble to be invited to perform at the Bruckner Festival in Linz, Austria. They have recorded many works for radio station WFMT in Chicago and served as Quartet-in-Residence at Northeastern Illinois University. Their repertoire ranges from Haydn to Ravel to Twentieth Century masters.

General admission is $6.00, GSU Alumni are $5.00, Senior Citizens and GSU students are free. Tickets are available at the Cashier's Office. For info, contact Student Activities Ext. 2141.

TREASURES RETRIEVED . . . Folk dolls and dolls restored from a round trip to the attic are currently featured in the LRC display cases.
