CHILD CARE CENTER REOPENS . . .

GSU's Child Care Center will begin operating Tuesday, September 4, on the first floor of the "F" Building. Children, ages 2-12, of faculty, staff and students at the University may be enrolled in the Center. (All children must be toilet trained.) Registration will be available at the Student Activities Office (D1124) Monday, August 20, through Tuesday, August 28, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and 5-7 p.m. Registration will also be available in the GSU Fall Trimester registration area Wednesday and Thursday, August 29-30. Children will be required to have a completed medical record on file at the Center by the first day of attendance. Center hours will be: Mondays-Thursdays, 8:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m., and Fridays, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. A professional staff will supervise children in activities including: writing and crafts skills, outdoor play, science, dramatic play, songs and small motor skills. For further information, contact Student Activities, x2142.

DON'T FORGET THE ANNUAL . . .

Faculty and Professional Staff Meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday, September 5, in Engbretson Hall. Immediately following, beginning at 12:30 p.m., there will be a barbecue on the Governors Patio, for faculty, professional and civil service staff. If you have a special dessert you would like to contribute for this affair, please call the University Assembly Office at x2345.

NEW IN PERSONNEL . . .

Joel Shinault has been appointed as University Research Associate/CETA Coordinator in Personnel. A Joliet resident, he was formerly a field researcher with Southern Illinois University at the Edwardsville campus and a youth specialist with the Will-Grundy CETA Prime Sponsor agency. He received his master's degree from Atlanta University and his bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois University.

A UMW SUCCESS STORY . . .

The University Without Walls program at GSU is happy to announce one of its recent graduates, Jerry Kellman, is alive and doing well at Northwestern University in the Medill School of Journalism. Jerry completed his UMW B.A. in March by attaining competencies as a community organizer. His activities in Illinois and Pennsylvania resulted in the creation of the broad-based Pennsylvania Federation for Energy and the Economy, a statewide consumer organization which has had considerable political and economic impact on Pennsylvania's energy future. A longtime professional organizer, Jerry is now pursuing a master of Science degree in Journalism with an emphasis in Television News Broadcasting. He is a stringer for the Des Plaines Suburban Times and his academic plans include an internship in Washington D.C. as the beat correspondent for a downstate television affiliate. He should graduate from Northwestern in June, 1980.

ONE STEP AT

is the way the LRC Technical Services staff has been doing things for the past three weeks since this six-foot ladder has been in their office. It seems that the GSU personnel who had been repairing the ceiling left it there and the Technical Services staff decided to decorate it with everything from plants to a stuffed monkey named George. Staff members include:

- Ann Glascoff,
- Jean Brubaker,
- Barbara Mucklow,
- Jan Laird,
- Wilma Cooper,
- Mary Schellhorn,
- Sue Morriss,
- Linda Balanoff,
- Leona Erickson,
- Margo Ellman,

Kathy Norman, Que Owens, Pam Burdett, Sue Heidekrueger, Marty Sarantakos and Flora Haynes.

SUCCESS FOR YOUR CHILD . . . "Ways that Parents Can Help Their Children Succeed in School" is the theme of a special conference at the Pick Congress Hotel, 11:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Saturday, August 25. University of Chicago Professor Benjamin Bloom and GSU Professor Barbara Pearson will be the featured speakers. For details, call 363-2432.

The seminar offers intense examination and discussion of Flaherty's major films and those of other noted filmmakers. . . A few words from MICHAEL COHEN (BPS) who is on sabbatical in London, England. He writes ". . . have been looking into British historic preservation policies and, with the help of the Greater London Council's Historic Buildings Division, have begun a series of case studies of specific efforts to restore historic buildings. The first one concerns a Mid-Victorian music hall in the east end which was recently restored . . ."

IF YOU HAVE . . . obsolete forms and stationery and other paper you can no longer use, don't just throw it away. Two community organizations are anxious to accept it and have it recycled. Contact Ken Johnson, x2513, for more information.

ART EXHIBIT . . . Nick Schulien will present a painting and drawing exhibit in the Visual Arts Gallery through August 31. The gallery is open from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays.

SING, SANG, SUNG . . .

We sing, we sang, we have sung . . . Our apologies to Faze I readers for erring in the usage of the past participle of "sing" in last week's issue.

GSU FISCAL 1980 BUDGET
SET AT $13,357,000

PARK FOREST SOUTH, Ill.--The operating budget of Governors State University for fiscal 1980 has increased to $13,357,000, up 8.1% over fiscal 1979, following the signing of the state's first $1 billion higher education funding measures by Governor James R. Thompson.

Nearly 94% of the $997,500 gain is accounted for by the higher cost of goods, services and personnel, according to GSU President Leo Goodman-Malamuth II. "We are pleased that the Board of Governors and the Illinois Board of Higher Education have recognized the impact of inflation and have attempted to adjust for it by granting appropriate increases in such important areas as contractual services, commodities, educational equipment, travel and salaries," he declares. "This action also reflects their recognition of the need for replacement of equipment at the University."

As usual, personnel services, in the amount of $9,721,800 accounted for the biggest portion of the budget at 72.8%. Contractual services, such as utilities, postage, maintenance and repair, totaling $2,300,800, is next in line at 17.2%. Funding for equipment and library books at $376,300 and general commodities at $353,600 total about 5% of the operating budget. Travel ($76,600), auto equipment ($55,700), telecommunications ($269,100) and awards and grants ($203,200) make up the balance.

Nonoperating items, including $355,000 for employers contributions to the retirement fund and $1,282,700 for rental of facilities and sites, raise the University's total budget to $14,994,800.

Governor Thompson also approved capital funds of $115,303 to provide ramps and automatic doors at GSU to comply with federal handicapped access regulations and for extending water mains throughout the campus to meet EPA regulations.

In commenting on the FY 1980 budget, Executive Director James Furman, of the Illinois Board of Higher Education said, "I have not experienced a better rapport in terms of support from both the Governor and the General Assembly."

"Although an increase in operating budget for this year has been granted, future annual increases, except for inflation, will depend on the University's ability to attract and retain more students through excellence in academic programs and meeting the needs of both the students and the public throughout this region," Goodman-Malamuth states. "Two major moves toward that end currently include the establishment of a new grading policy and reorganization of our collegial structure as of Sept. 1."

"Furthermore, there is, and always will be, a need for support from our alumni and friends in the business/industrial/financial community for private funds to carry on research and other worthy activities not funded by the state. It is in this area that Governors State University has the greatest opportunity to develop the depth of quality and service that marks a great university," the president says.

Governors State University is an upper division university serving junior, senior and master level students. It is located off Stuenkel Road just east of Governors Highway in Park Forest South.
