Vol. 8, No. 52

CONGRATULATIONS . . . to the four recipients of full-time scholarships to GSU through the University's Community College Honors Program. The scholarships, funded by the University and the Governors State University Foundation, were instituted to encourage community college students to continue their education full-time at GSU. Pictured above with President Leo Goodman-Malamuth (left) and David Barr (in back), secretary of the GSU Foundation who delivered the address at the September 12th scholarship dinner, are recipients of the first annual awards: (left to right) Thomas Rudolph, Kankakee C.C.; Cheryl Basketfield, Thornton C.C.; Robert Perkins, Prairie State College; and Mary McKendree, Moraine Valley C.C.

THE FIRST PROGRAM . . . of the Fall Trimester Special Events Series will feature Cy Timmons, guitarist, singer and vocal impressionist, Friday, October 5, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. The Reunification Comedy group of Chicago will also perform. Timmons has appeared with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, recorded with the New Christy Minstrels and opened shows for such headliners as Peter Nero, David Steinberg and Joan Rivers. The six programs in the Special Events Series are sponsored by the Student Activity Program and are free for GSU students. Season tickets are available to the public for $10. Single event tickets are $2 for the general public and $1 for GSU faculty and staff, members of the Alumni Association and senior citizens.

APPEARING SOON . . . Jane Fonda and Tom Hayden are expected to appear before a sold-out audience when they are presented in a Contemporary Lecture Forum in the Gym, Wednesday, October 17, at 8 p.m. Internationally known political/sociological activists, Fonda and Hayden will discuss "Critical Issues Facing Us in the 1980's." Seating will be on a first come, first served basis. Tickets are now on sale in the Student Activities Office. The event is one of the six being offered this Trimester by the Student Activity Program.

THE POPE'S . . . all-day activities in Chicago will be televised in the University Library on Friday, October 5. TV monitors will be located in the skylight area and on the Serials balcony. Come and watch!

ATTENDING . . . the September 17th EXCEL graduation luncheon were Joyce Gordon (left) and Lucille Poroli, instructors of GSU's EXCEL, the American Management Association's eight-week program of study in office professionalism. The next class will begin in October. GSUers interested in the training program can obtain more information by contacting Betty Elliott in the Personnel Office, x2194.

PUBLISHED . . . MOHAMMED KISHTA (A&S) is the author of an article, "Proportional and Combinatorial Reasoning in Two Cultures," in the Journal of Research in Science Teaching, Vol. 16, Issue No. 5, September, 1979 . . . SANG-O RHEE (SHP) has an article on "Patient Race and Physician Performances: Quality of Medical Care, Hospital Admissions, and Hospital Stays," in the July, 1979 issue of Medical Care . . . PAUL GREEN and PETER COLBY (both of BPA) have contributed an article on the changing voting patterns in Chicago's suburbs to the October edition of Illinois Issues.

CREATIVE DRAMATICS . . . for young people will be offered in the GSU Theatre on Saturdays, September 29-December 15. Participants will investigate theatre games, exercises and improvisational techniques and explore theatre skills including make-up, costuming and characterization. Group I (grades 1-3) will meet from 9:30-11:00 a.m.; Group II (grades 4-6), 1-2:30 p.m.; and Group III (junior high-high school), 2:30-4 p.m. For details, call x2119.

DON'T FORGET . . . Recommendations for the Honorary Degree recipients at the June, 1980 Commencement should be sent to the Office of Institutional Research and Planning by October 1.

THE INTRAMURAL-REC PROGRAM . . . is being offered Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Gym from 5:45-6:45 p.m. It is free to GSU faculty, staff and students and membership in the YMCA is not required. The Office of Student Activities sponsors the program of indoor team sports and recreational activities.

GSUings . . . PRINCE McLEMORE (HLD) conducting an inservice workshop on classroom discipline for the faculty at Morgan Park Academy in Chicago, September 4 . . . BOB JUDD (BPA) presenting a demonstration of "Classroom Micro-computer Use" to the Chicago and Suburban Audio Visual Association meeting at Schaumburg, September 18 . . . JAY LUBINSKY (A&S) delivering a lecture on "Auditory Processing Disorders: Assessment and Intervention" at the Illinois College of Optometry, October 9 . . . JOHN PAYNE (A&S) receiving a Distinguished Service Citation from Beloit College at the 1979 Homecoming-Reunion activities, October 5-7 . . . CONSTANCE SHORTER (formerly HLD) beginning new position as assistant superintendent of School District 169 in Chicago Heights . . . BOB JENSEN (BO) being elected vice chairman of the Board of Directors for Eastern Will County Senior Services . . . MICHAEL LEWIS (HLD, on sabbatical in England) being invited to serve a one-year term as a member of the Educational Review Committee for the National Institute for Mental Health. During the 1978-79 school year, he served as a consultant to the Committee, which evaluates the scientific and educational merit in the field of mental health. . . PETER COLBY and PAUL GREEN (both of BPA) speaking on "The U.S. Census and Political Representation" to a breakfast meeting of Chicago United, an organization of the city's leading businesses and financial institutions . . . Congratulations to BARBARA WILLIAMS (CCC) whose daughter Margot was elected to the NIU Senate in stiff competition recently.

GLOWING GRADS . . . Ann Swartwout (HLD alumna) has recently been appointed public relations representative at the Community Bank of Homewood-Flossmoor. She is on the GSU Foundation Board and has been on the GSU Alumni Board since 1974 . . . Roberta Balke (HLD alumna) has been named acting director of Special Projects at Moraine Valley Community College.

NOTICE . . . Effective, September 15, 1979, the Learning Resources Center has been renamed the University Library. The Library and the Instructional Communications Center (ICC) now report directly to the Provost.

SYMPOSIUM SLATED . . . GSU's Division of Urban Teacher Education will conduct an all-day symposium on "The Black Child in the Suburban Schools," Saturday, October 13. Symposium speakers are Dean Roy Cogdell, HLD, and Robert Lyons, Deputy Superintendent of the State Board of Education, who will discuss Black/White communications and desegregation efforts in the state. Other seminar sessions will focus on understanding the nature of testing, racial and sexual bias in the curriculum, life styles of the Black child, Black contributions to the nation, and administering an integrated school. Parents, teachers, and administrators are encouraged to attend. For more information, call George Michel, x2366.

GRADUATE COURSES . . . for speech-language clinicians will be offered beginning October 1, through the Office of Special Programs. The courses are designed for those who wish to update their training or pursue recent developments in certain areas. For more information, contact Ethel Cash, x2408, or John Lowe, x2360.

LEARN TO PLAY . . . GSU and the Old Town School of Folk Music will soon offer beginning and intermediate guitar classes on the GSU campus. A four-week non-credit session will be offered from 4-6 p.m. and 8-10 p.m. beginning Wednesday, October 3. An eight-week credit/non-credit session will begin Wednesday, October 31. For details, call x2549.
