Riches & freedom mean a special responsibility; riches and freedom create a special obligation.

--Pope John Paul II

October 5, 1979

Vol. 9, No. 1

NOTICE . . . The Dean of Student Affairs and Services should be contacted whenever enrollment figures are needed. Enrollment reporting has been centralized in that office to provide consistent data until enrollment for the Trimester is closed and the information forwarded to the Institutional Research and Planning Office.

AN OPEN HOUSE . . . for Sharon Filkins, editor of GSU's Community Reporter, will be held Friday, October 12, at 2:30 p.m. in the Community Services and Education office, B1507. She will be assuming her new position on October 15. The GSU Community is invited to visit with her at that time and say goodbye.

GET YOUR TICKETS . . . for the Jane Fonda and Tom Hayden lecture forum from the Cashier's Office if you are GSU faculty or staff, a member of the Alumni Association, a senior citizen, or need general admission tickets. Student tickets are available in the Student Activities Office.

80 DAYS 'TIL CHRISTMAS . . . GSU will be closed December 24, 1979 through January 1, 1980. December 24, 25, 31 and January 1 are official University holidays, while December 26, 27, and 28 will be additional closing dates for energy conservation. Civil service and non-faculty professional staff must select vacation time, make-up time or leave without pay options to cover these additional days which would normally be working days. Complete the appropriate form through your unit head.

CY TIMMONS WILL APPEAR . . . in concert Friday, October 5, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. An Atlanta-based singer and musician, Timmons will kick off the Student Activity Program's fall series of special events. Timmons has appeared throughout the country with Peter Nero, David Steinberg, Joan Rivers and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Sharing the program will be the Reunification Company, a comedy-improvisational group from the Chicago area. Tickets can be purchased in advance from the Cashier's Office or at the door. Tickets are $2 for general admission and $1 for GSU faculty and staff, Alumni Association members and senior citizens. Tickets are free for GSU students and can be obtained in the Student Activities Office.

GLOWING GRADS . . . Chuck Smith, a 1977 graduate of the BOG degree program, has been nominated for the "Best Director" Jefferson Award for his role as director of the play "Eden," which has been nominated as "Best Production." The Jefferson Awards are prestigious citations in celebration of excellence in Chicago-originated theatre. Smith will be a guest director in an upcoming GSU theatre production . . . Dennis Schreiber, a 1977 graduate of HLD, has been elected president of the American Association of the Deaf-Blind during the organization's recent convention in the San Antonio, Texas area.

PUBLISHED . . . TONY WEI (A&S) has an article entitled "Philosophical Issues in Library Science) in Journal of Library & Information Science. One of the articles he wrote during his sabbatical leave in the Far East, it is written in Chinese . . . PETER COLBY and PAUL GREEN (both of BPA) are authoring chapters to appear in a book of readings entitled Illinois Government and Politics, which is to be published by January, 1980, by Kendall-Hunt Publishers. Green's chapter is entitled "History of Political Parties in Illinois." Colby's chapter carries the title "Illinois Political Parties and the Ideal of Responsible Party Government."

GSUings . . . PETER COLBY (BPA) and LARRY McCLELLAN (A&S) participating as tour guides in the South Suburban Development Tour, August 30, coordinated by the South Suburban Mayors' & Managers' Association and the Chicago Association of Commerce & Industry . . . DAVID BURGEST (HLD) speaking at New Hope Baptist Church, 284 E. 14th Place in Chicago Heights, Sunday, October 14, at the 11 a.m. morning service and the annual chorus recital at 7 p.m. . . .
