Vol. 9, No. 3

YOU ARE INVITED . . . to become acquainted with the Women's Resource Center at a wine and cheese reception from 4-8 p.m., Thursday, October 25, in GSU's B Lounge. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided.

A HALLOWEEN JAZZ CONCERT . . . will be hosted by GSU's Music Division of Fine and Performing Arts October 31, to introduce the three 1979-80 performing jazz groups. The free concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall, with promises of "tricks and treats." The audience is urged to attend in costume although the musicians may or may not be in disguise. The GSU Jazz Combo and the Jazz Ensemble perform under the direction of University Professor Warrick Carter. This year's new group is a five-piece combo under the direction of Community Professor Ken Chaney. The public is invited.

NOTICE . . . The Office of Student Activities will not be processing student, staff or faculty identification cards, Tuesday-Thursday, October 23-25. I.D. card production will be resumed Friday, October 26.

SALM DUO TO PERFORM . . . Noted pianist Erna Salm and her daughter, acclaimed cellist Susan Salm, will open the Chamber Music series at GSU Friday, October 19, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. Tickets are $2 for general admission, $1 for GSU faculty and staff, Alumni Association members and senior citizens.

North Central Accreditation Team

GSU ADMINISTRATORS . . . met with members of the North Central Accreditation Team during their three-day visit, October 15-17, at Governors State University. The Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association (NCA) will take official action in April, 1980, after review of the Self-Study and the Team Report recommendations. The team indicated it would recommend to NCA continued accreditation for the next 10 years (Fall, 1990) with a "focused visit" in five years (Fall, 1984) on the concerns which will be included in the team report. A draft of the report will be sent to President Goodman-Malamuth for review in mid-November and the final report will be received from NCA in early December. Institutional strengths and weaknesses identified by the visitation team will be prepared and circulated as soon as the official report is received in early December.

HUMANISTIC GUIDELINES . . . Professor Steve Blumberg of California State University, Long Beach, will present a guest lecture on "Humanistic Guidelines for Public Administrators" in Engbretson Hall at 7:30 p.m., Monday, October 29. The lecture, sponsored by the Institute for Public Policy and Administration, is open to the public.

MUSIC RECITAL . . . LaVerne Jackson, a student in GSU's Music Department, will be performing Sunday, October 28, at 4 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. She will be singing 20 songs of a standard Italian, German, French and English repertoire.

PUBLISHED . . . CARL STOVER's (BPA) article entitled "Improve Police Education? Why? How?" has been accepted for publication in the winter edition of Illinois Police Officer.

GUEST LECTURER . . . for the October 24th Politics of Illinois State Legislature lecture series will be Illinois State Senator Aldo DeAngelis, 10th District, who will discuss several issues affecting senior citizens in the south suburban area. The discussion will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Engbretson Hall.
