IPPA GAINS OFFICIAL STATUS . . . GSU's Institute for Public Policy and Administration has been approved by the Illinois Board of Higher Education and the Board of Governors as an official unit of GSU. IPPA was created last February, as a pilot project involving research and service programs. During a recent luncheon at GSU, University Professor Peter Colby (far left), IPPA Director, introduced the community professors who will participate in the Institute's programs. They are (left to right): Ernestine Berry, personnel director of Robbins; Ron Nagel, Thornwood High history instructor and South Holland attorney; Nancy Grimmer, assistant to the village manager of Hazel Crest; James Brodie, public safety director at Oak Forest Hospital; and William Nolan, Homewood police chief. Not pictured are Robert Andrews, village administrator for Robbins, and James Sherman, executive assistant to Congressman Martin Russo.

EDUCATION IN THE 80's . . . The need to foster educational experimentation remains essential if institutions are to avoid decline, according to a policy statement published by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU). Governors State University President Leo Goodman-Malamuth served on the AASCU committee which developed the document entitled "Academic Changes and Improvement: Responses for the 1980's" as a working paper for institutions which must plan for the upcoming decade. The policy statement concisely outlines significant academic areas that require creative action and describes major challenges that state colleges and universities must face in order to successfully meet new student demands.

GSU HAS GAINED MEMBERSHIP . . . in the National University Extension Association, joining 250 other universities, colleges and related organizations which are dedicated to lifelong learning and public service through extension programs.

GSU ENTERTAINMENT . . . Blues musician Corky Siegel will share the spotlight with comedians Jim O'Brien and Ken Sevara at 8 p.m., Friday, November 2, in GSU's Music Recital Hall. Siegel, Chicago harmonica player, pianist and singer, has gained a worldwide reputation as a performer. O'Brien and Sevara are former students at Prairie State College. Tickets are: $2 for general admission; $1 for GSU faculty, staff and Alumni Association members and senior citizens; and free for GSU students. This event is part of the Contemporary Music and Comedy Showcase series. The next special event at GSU will feature Agustin Anievas on November 16.

THE GSU WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION . . . has presented the University with funds to establish three $100 scholarships for female students. The application deadline is November 9. For criteria and details, contact Financial Aids at x2161.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT . . . for the poster exhibit in the Hall of Governors in honor of the International Year of the Child and announcing the upcoming issue of The Creative Woman, GSU's literary quarterly magazine. The winter issue will focus on "The Worlds of Children," with Roberta Bear of HLD as guest editor. Lynn Strauss is managing editor, Suzanne Oliver--graphic designer, and Joan Lewis--editorial consultant. Subscriptions to the quarterly can be obtained by calling x2524.

AN OPEN LECTURE . . . on "The Rise of Nationalism in Southern Africa" is scheduled for Monday, November 5, at 5:15 p.m. in Room D3108, for the Third World in Perspective class. Professor Patrick O'Meara of Indiana University will be the guest lecturer.

MEDIA AND YOU . . . Faculty and staff who wish to participate in individualized instruction sessions on the operation of standard audiovisual equipment generally used in classrooms, should contact Kyle McHaney, x2298 or x2299, in ICC's Distribution Center. Also upon request, the Distribution Center will conduct short workshops on the operation of audiovisual equipment for students in classes involving media projects. Faculty members who wish to arrange such workshops for students should contact Rick Robinson, x2298 or x2299.

GUEST LECTURER . . . for the November 7th session of the Politics of Illinois State Legislature lecture series will be Illinois State Senator George Sangmeister, 42nd District, Will County, whose discussion will include information on legislation affecting safety of senior citizens. The discussion will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Engbretson Hall.

WORLD FAMOUS PIANIST . . . Agustin Anievas will perform in GSU's Music Recital Hall Friday, November 16, at 8 p.m. The New York-born virtuoso will feature works of Schubert, Beethoven, Schumann & Liszt. For info, call x2123.

A NIGHT AT THE THEATRE . . . GSU will present "A View from the Bridge," a play by Arthur Miller, at 8 p.m., November 9, 10, 16, and 17, in the GSU Theatre. The story revolves around a married couple and the problems that arise after two Italian cousins are smuggled into this country. Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for GSU faculty, staff and Alumni Association members and senior citizens. Tickets are free to GSU students.

GSUings . . . MELVYN FREED (VP-ADMIN) receiving the second highest national honor conferred by the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, the "Knight Commander of the Court of Honor." Freed was voted recipient of this honor during the biennial meeting of the Supreme Council which was held October 16, in Washington, D.C. . . . STEVE BELLIN (FA) coordinating 18 mini-conferences in Illinois during October and November. The sessions are for financial aid officers and high school counselors and for the first time are combining information from state and national programs for an audience representing both secondary and post-secondary educational institutions . . . BEN LOWE (HLD) attending the international conference on "Sport, Culture, and the Modern State" at Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, October 25-28 . . . TULSI SARAL (HLD) serving as Program Coordinator for the 1980 Annual Conference of the American Association for the Study of Mental Imagery which will be held in Minneapolis, Minn., May 20-22. Saral will be presenting a workshop on "Imagery of Transcending Boundaries" at the Third American Conference on the Fantasy and Imaging Process in New York in November . . . WILLIAM BOLINE (HLD) appearing as a guest on Attorney Tom Dodd's radio show on WLS-AM Chicago. The broadcast will air Sunday, November 3 . . .
