Vol. 9, No. 6

MEETING AT GSU . . . Illinois State Rep. James Keane of the 28th District (center) listens as Dr. Donald Walters, executive director of the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities (right), and Governors State University President Leo Goodman-Malamuth brief him on the latest developments at GSU and the four other universities in the BOG system. Rep. Keane and several other state legislators gathered last week on the campus to hear progress reports from several University administrators.

A NEW FEDERAL GRANT . . . is making available 40 additional scholarships in bilingual-bicultural education administration and supervision at GSU. The new scholarships are being offered to students seeking an M.A. beginning with the 1980 Winter Trimester. Call x2294 or x2373.

APPEARING AT GSU . . . Agustin Anievas, internationally-hailed concert pianist, will bring what has been called "among the superior talents of his generation" to the stage of GSU's Music Recital Hall at 8 p.m., Friday, November 16, as part of the University's Classical Music Series. The New York-born virtuoso will feature works of Schubert, Beethoven, Schumann and Liszt. Tickets are $2 for the public and $1 for GSU faculty and staff, members of the GSU Alumni Association and senior citizens. GSU students are admitted free.

THE GSU THEATRE . . . production of "A View From the Bridge," a play by Arthur Miller, will be presented at 8 p.m., November 9, 10, 16, and 17, in the GSU Theatre. The story revolves around a married couple and the problems that arise after two Italian cousins are smuggled into this country. Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for GSU faculty, staff and Alumni Association members and senior citizens. Tickets are free to GSU students.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION . . . Effective November 1, 1979, the reporting relationship of the Office of Community College Relations was transferred from the Dean of Special Programs and Instructional Services to the Dean of Student Affairs and Services. The Coordinator of Community College Relations will assist and advise the Director of Admissions and Recruitment on all aspects of the community college recruitment program.

GET THE PICTURE . . . Eight prominent Illinois photographers will be featured at GSU in a series of free lectures beginning Friday, November 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Room A1102. Joseph Jachna, professor in the School of Art and Design at the University of Illinois at Circle Campus, will be the first lecturer. Charles Swedlund, professor of photography at Southern Illinois University, will speak November 16. The series will bring together prominent mid-west photographers to study their styles and to identify emerging schools of thought in current photographic efforts in the midwest.

PUBLISHED . . . PETER COLBY and PAUL GREEN (both of BPA) co-authored an article on "Byrne's Victory: True Grit and Heavy Snow" which appeared in the October, 1979 issue of Capitol Commentary, a civics education newspaper for high school students published by Sangamon State Univ.

NEWS FROM THE BOOKSTORE . . . Steven Pribyl has been appointed acting manager of Follett's GSU Bookstore, in the absence of Manager Judith Bushong who is recuperating following recent surgery. All orders, inquiries, etc. should be forwarded to Pribyl for handling. In order to insure a complete book service for students and faculty, plans are underway to expand the size of the Bookstore as well as to increase trade books and supply items.

LOST & FOUND . . . Ten cassettes, pre-recorded AERA series K, were found in the Purchasing Office. There is no other identification on them. Owner may claim by contacting Tim Arr, x2175.

AN OPEN LECTURE . . . on "Guerrilla Movements in Latin America" is scheduled for Monday, November 12, at 5:15 p.m. in Room D3108, during the Third World in Perspective class. Professor Otto Pikaza, director of Latin American Studies at the University of Illinois at Circle Campus, will be the guest lecturer.

GUEST LECTURER . . . for the November 14th session of the Politics of Illinois State Legislature lecture series will be Illinois Comptroller Roland Burris, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Engbretson Hall.
