Vol. 9, No. 7

VISITORS ON THE GSU CAMPUS . . . recently included Illinois State legislators from the ninth and tenth districts who gathered here with other legislators from the region GSU serves to hear progress reports from several GSU administrators. Pictured left to right, are: Governors State University President Leo Goodman-Malamuth; Representatives Michael Getty (10), Terry Steczo (9), William Mahar (9), Patrick Grossi (10); Senator Aldo DeAngelis (10); and Dr. Donald Walters, Executive Director of the Board of Governors. Also attending were: Representatives James Keane (28th District); and Jack Davis, LeRoy Van Duyne, and Harry Leinenweber (42nd District).

BY POPULAR DEMAND . . . Another opportunity to see the GSU Theatre production of "A View From the Bridge" is being offered Sunday, November 18, at 7 p.m. in the GSU Theatre. Performances scheduled for November 16 and 17, are sold out. Tickets are still available for the Sunday performance.

REMINDER TO ALL FACULTY . . . It's time to think about the materials you will want on reserve during the Winter '80 Trimester. Please submit your reserve lists by Friday, December 15, if you have not already done so. For further information, call your Reserve Coordinator in the University Library: HLD & BPA, Jo Wiater--x2327; SHP & A&S, Mary Sallander--x2333.

WITH CHRISTMAS APPROACHING . . . GSUers may find gift items in the GSU Bookstore. All clothing items and canvas book bags are now 20% off the regular prices. The Bookstore also has a selection of 350 classical, jazz and rock record albums and 50 cassette tapes, marked down to $1.98 and $2.98. Also available are 1980 calendars, Dr. Seuss books, bestsellers, and a wide selection of books on a variety of subjects.

GRADUATE EXHIBIT . . . Leone Middleton, a candidate for the master's degree in Visual Arts (Printmaking/Design), will exhibit her graduate project works, November 19-November 29.

GSU CLOSURES FOR HOLIDAY . . . In observance of the Thanksgiving holiday, GSU will close after Wednesday night classes on November 21, and remain closed until Monday, November 26. The University Library will follow this same schedule. (The Y:ICA will be closed only Thanksgiving day.)

EXTRA! EXTRA! . . . Audrey Gordon, a featured speaker at the "Hospice: An Alternative Way to Care for the Dying" seminar, will be in the Bookstore from Noon to 1 p.m., Saturday, November 17, to autograph copies of her new book, They Need to Know.

EXPLORE THE LIBRARY . . . Faculty, staff and students can all benefit from the University Library's new emphasis on its library user education program. The program offers orientation to the information resources available both in the GSU Library and through cooperating institutions throughout Illinois. Also available are bibliographic workshops tailored to class needs on topics such as "What is ERIC and what can it do for me?" "Coping with Chemistry Abstracts" and "Psyching out Psychological Abstracts," and assorted topics of your choice.

For further information or to make an appointment for an orientation or workshop, contact: Shannon Troy, Library Reference Office, x2236. Please schedule at least a week in advance.

STUDENTS ON THE MOVE . . . Alma Martin, GSU Student Senate president, and Cliff DiMascio, BOG Degree Program representative on the Student Senate, shared their concepts of higher education with Prairie State College students, November 14, at PSC. Their discussion focused on State universities and community colleges.

THE GSU COMMUNITY . . . sends best wishes to Donna McBride, secretary in the Student Activities Office, who is recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident, November 10. She is listed in stable condition in St. James Hospital (Room 648). She can receive visitors, phone calls and flowers. Tommy Dascenzo, Director of Student Activities, has set up a special fund to facilitate any donations interested individuals may wish to make. Donations may be made to this fund through the Student Activities Office (to Dascenzo's attention).

"THANK YOU . . . for all the cards, phone calls and concerns during my absence. I'm happy to be back." --Bonnie Vick

International Year of the Child 1979

Year of the Child Bill of Rights

1. The right to love and understanding
2. The right to adequate nutrition and medical care
3. The right to free education
4. The right to full opportunity for play and recreation
5. The right to name and nationality
6. The right to special care if handicapped
7. The right to be among the first to receive relief in times of disaster
8. The right to be a useful member of society and to develop individual abilities
9. The child shall not be admitted to employment before an appropriate minimum age.
10. The right to enjoy these rights regardless of race, color, sex, religion, national or social origin.

1. Don't spoil me. I know quite well that I ought not to have all that I ask for—I'm only testing you.
2. Don't be afraid to be firm with me. I prefer it. It makes me feel more secure.
3. Don't let me form bad habits. I have to rely on you to detect them in the early stages.
4. Don't make me feel smaller than I am. It only makes me behave stupidly "big."
5. Don't correct me in front of people if you can help it. I'll take much more notice if you talk quietly with me in private.
6. Don't make me feel that my mistakes are sins. It upsets my sense of values.
7. Don't protect me from consequences. I need to learn the painful way sometimes.
8. Don't be too upset when I say, "I hate you." It isn't you I hate but your power to thwart me.
9. Don't nag. If you do, I shall have to protect myself by ignoring you.
10. Don't take too much notice of my small ailments. Sometimes they get me the attention I need.
11. Don't make rash promises. Remember that I feel badly let down when promises are broken.
12. Don't forget that I cannot explain myself as well as I should like. That is why I'm not always accurate.
13. Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily frightened into telling lies.
14. Don't put me off when I ask questions. If you do, you will find that I stop asking and seek my information elsewhere.
15. Don't be inconsistent. That completely confuses me and makes me lose faith in you.
16. Don't tell me my fears are silly. They are terribly real and you do much to reassure me if you try to understand.
17. Don't ever suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me too great a shock when I discover that you aren't.
18. Don't ever think that it is beneath your dignity to apologize to me. An honest apology makes me feel surprisingly warm toward you.
19. Don't forget I love experimenting. I can't get on without it; so please put up with it.
20. Don't forget how quickly I am growing up. It must be very difficult for you to keep pace with me, but please try.
21. Don't forget that I can't thrive without lots of understanding love... but I don't need to tell you, do I?
22. Treat me the way you treat your friends, then I will be your friend, too.
23. Remember, I learn more from a MODEL than a critic.
