CONGRATULATIONS . . . GSU President Leo Goodman-Malamuth (left) congratulates Louis Krause, executive director of the Mill-Grundy Consortium CETA Services and GSU student who was named recipient of the Fifth Annual Student Laureate Award in honor of his outstanding educational achievements as a member of the 1980 graduating class. Krause is completing a Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts degree with concentrated studies in Public Administration. Awarded by the Lincoln Academy of Illinois, the honor recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional effort and determination to obtain an education.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION . . . Physical Plant Operations reports that the entrance into D Building, near the Personnel and Security Offices, must be closed to traffic during approximately the next three weeks.

GSU/YMCA ENTER INTO NEW CONTRACT . . . Governors State University and the YMCA at GSU have entered into a new contract which assures the continued operation of the "Y" at the University. Effective January 1, all students, faculty and staff will be granted free, individual membership in the "Y," except for a $1 processing fee. This will entitle them to the use of all "Y" facilities. Registration for YMCA courses will be at regular member rates. Anyone wishing to receive a YMCA membership card need simply to present his/her GSU identification card to the "Y" and pay the $1 processing fee. GSU family membership rates have been discontinued. According to President Goodman-Malamuth II, the primary goal of the new contract is to make recreational and physical fitness programs more available to GSU students, staff and faculty and at the same time help provide additional revenue to pay, at least partially, for the ever increasing costs of operating and maintaining the facility.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY SENATE . . . Larry McClellan, president of the Faculty Senate, has announced the names of the newly elected faculty participants chosen to serve on University-wide committees. Representatives on the Budget Committee are: Cliff Eagleton, Elizabeth Glascoff, Paul Hill, and Roscoe Perritt. Serving on the Campus Physical Resources Committee are: Mimi Kaplan, Louis Mulé, and Lonn Wolf. Elected to the Policy Monitoring Committee are: William Boline, Robert Donaldson, Linda Forner, and Ndiva Kofele-Kale.

DURING THE HOLIDAYS, THERE WERE. . .

Singers from the GSU Child Care Center...

Many GSUers enjoying them and the other festivities at the University Holiday Party...

And many enjoying the Kwanzaa Celebration in Engbretson Hall.
