Nothing worthwhile in life is sudden.
We wait for birth. We wait for love.
We wait for life to reveal its meaning,
year by year, experience by experience.
--Anthony T. Padovano

CHORALE SEEKS SINGERS . . . The GSU Community Chorale will hold the first rehearsal of its third season, Monday, January 28, at 8 p.m. in the GSU Music Recital Hall. The Chorale, directed by Rudolf Strukoff, is open to those who have had some choral singing experience. Auditions are not required. Additional basses and tenors are particularly needed and men from area high schools, community colleges and church choirs are encouraged to join. College credit is available for those who are interested. Registration deadline for credit is Saturday, January 19. For information, singers should contact Strukoff at x2454 or 534-6625.

WORKSHOP PLANNED . . . A comprehensive workshop on college scholarships and financial aid is being offered by GSU Saturday, February 16. The workshop will assist participants in determining what is available, how to apply, and whether they qualify. Personal counseling will be available as well as individualized computer printouts of the scholarships and financial aid available. A fee of $20 per family will be charged. For reservations and details, call x2321. Reservation deadline is Tuesday, February 12.

RESCHEDULED . . . The Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (C.P.R.) class, originally planned for January 23 and 30, has been rescheduled and will now be held January 30 and February 6. There are still a couple of openings for the class, consisting of two three-hour sessions. To sign up, contact March Smith, x2168 or x2141.

MUSIC AND LAUGHTER . . . Dave Rudolf, folk-singer, composer, and recording artist, and "Exit Laughing," a comedy group, will share billing when GSU begins its winter series of talent showcases at 8 p.m., Friday, January 25. Rudolf, a Park Forest resident, has performed with such headliners as Cheech and Chong and Ramsey Lewis. He blends blues and folk with country rock, soft ballads, upbeat swing and a bluegrass style. "Exit Laughing" is an improvisational comedy company of five young men and women from the Chicago area. They have been seen at various Chicago area clubs and have played at Chicagofest and with Second City. The performance is free of charge to GSU students. Tickets are $2 for the general public and $1 for GSU faculty and staff, Alumni Association members and senior citizens.

PREMIER CONCERT . . . The newly organized GSU String Quartet will present its premier concert at 4 p.m., Sunday, January 27, in the GSU Music Recital Hall. Organized late in 1979 by Francois D'Albert, internationally recognized concert violinist and community professor of violin at GSU, the resident String Quartet includes distinguished Chicago artists: Hilel Kagan, violin; Rami Solomonow, viola; and Vlastimil Dvorak, cello. Assisting the GSU ensemble on the clarinet in the January 27th performance will be Aaron Horne, associate professor of music at MIU.

A "NEW GIRL NETWORK" . . . is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., Monday, January 28, at the South Suburban YWCA, 300 Plaza in Park Forest. The group will be a self-defined, success-oriented support system of peers. Members will include women who own their own businesses or plan to in the future, and women in administrative positions. Programs will include guest speakers and discussions on pertinent topics, including successful advertising, finding capital, and making decisions. Group facilitators are Jean Livingston (HLD), certified social worker, and Nancy Kirchner, GSU graduate and owner of a computer printing service. The group will meet twice a month. For fee information, details and reservations, call 534-6733 or 747-8451.

Mini-Grant Series Fund

MINI-GRANT SERIES FUND for Summer Cycle, 1980
Office of Research Deadline (5:00 p.m.) February 29, 1980

The Governors State University Mini-Grant Series Fund was established by the Office of Research to encourage and assist the Governors State University community in conducting projects related to research and other creative activities that will enable the institution to better achieve its goal, fulfill its mission and to seed such projects.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Governors State University faculty, professional staff, and students (sponsored by a faculty member) are eligible to submit applications and receive financial support from the Mini-Grant Series Fund.

TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR CONSIDERATION, A PROJECT MUST SHOW EVIDENCE OF THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

- .the potential of the proposed project for subsequent external support
- .the previous efforts of the applicant to secure external funding
- .the clarity and quality of the project description: needs statement, measurable objectives, procedures of implementation, and evaluation/dissemination plan
- .the appropriateness of the requested resources to the proposed work, and
- .the experience and qualifications of the applicant(s) to perform the proposed work.

Please note that the deadline for the Mini-Grant series will be February 29 instead of Feb. 1, allowing faculty, staff and students additional time to prepare applications. No applications will be accepted for this cycle after the deadline. The Governors State University Foundation has agreed, once again, to support the Mini-Grant Series Fund, thereby providing additional resources to faculty, staff and students. Application forms are now available in the Office of Research. All applications must be typed. For additional information, contact Sheadrick Tillman, Office of Research, x2215 or 2217.
