WHO'S WHO . . . Forty-seven GSU students have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding students, based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and future potential. Their names will be listed in the 1979-80 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Students named this year from GSU are: Margaret Donohue, Marilyn Green, Judith Putz, Peggy Glassford, Janet Muchnik, David Strauss, LaVerne Broady, Gloria Schuler, and Alma Martin, all from Park Forest; Gary Pajkos, Robert Perkins, and Mary Jo Jahn of Matteson; Clifford DiMascio and Leone Middleton, Crete; Kathy Cordona, Park Forest South.

Others are: Donna Menard, Harold Morris, Ruth Cummings, Steven Roberts, Marjorie Aitken, Vanice Billups, Rudolph Hammond, Anita Harmon, Norma Johnson, Nathaniel Richards, and Ann Warren, Chicago; Patricia Omalley, and Helen Burson, Chicago Hts.; Richard Debelak, Chicago Ridge; Valeda Webster, Harvey; and Elvira Hromek, Berwyn.

Also: Delores Todd, Donald Stemple, James Morris, Calumet City; Bernadette Hanacheck, Lansing; Paul Clark, Arlington Hts.; Claudia Thomas, Alsip; Barbara Lenkszus, South Holland; Ronald Vanek, Burbank; Pamela Richart, Frankfort; Edward Eichelberger, Plainfield; Richard Schutt, Worth; Virginia Griparis, Shorewood; Vincent McLarney, Kankakee; Belva Stelk, Bradley; Gail Stenzel, Bourbonnais; and Dorothy Keating, Homewood.

DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS . . . of the newly-organized resident GSU String Quartet rehearse for their premier concert Sunday, January 27, at 4 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. From left to right, they are: Francois D'Albert, violin; Hilel Kagan, violin; Vlastimil Dvorak, cello; and Rami Solomonow, viola. The concert is free and open to the public.

CONGRATULATIONS . . . to GSU's Media Communications Program which has received a $3,750 award from an ABC-TV network university gift program. Dean Clara Anthony, A&S, and Mel Muchnik, Communications Division chairperson, accepted the award January 22, at WLS-TV in Chicago. The gift will be used to further broadcast education within GSU's Media Communications Program.

MUSIC AND LAUGHTER . . . Dave Rudolf, folksinger, composer, and recording artist, and "Exit Laughing," a comedy group, will perform at 8 p.m., Friday, January 25, in the Music Recital Hall. For ticket information, call x2464.

SAY FAREWELL . . . to Dorothy Howell, Director of Personnel, at the Open House in her honor Friday, January 25, from 2-4 p.m., in the Personnel Office testing area. Leaving GSU after seven years, her future plans include a February 2nd marriage to Bob Lasch, Labor and Personnel Director in the Board of Governors Office in Springfield. They will reside in Springfield. Ms. Howell will return to the GSU campus two days each week as a consultant until a new director is appointed.

HAVE LUNCH . . . with the Women's Resource Center and your brown bag, in Room E1105 Thursday, February 7, at 12 noon when the guest speaker will be Dr. Judith Markowitz of Northwestern University. She is a post-doctoral fellow in Northwestern's program on women and has taught a class on sex-roles and language at GSU. The topic will be "Communications and Marital Politics."

NEEDED . . . a graduate assistant in BPA's Division of Public Administration to assist the director with applied research and service duties. Eligible are GSU graduate students currently enrolled for at least six credit hours. Coursework and/or experience in government desirable. The appointment date is February 18, 1980. If interested, contact Candy Serbus, x2246.

HAVE YOU NOTICED? . . . The GSU Placement Office is now located on the first floor, Wing D, and can still be reached at x2163. Eric Bell, job locator, has moved from the Financial Aids Office and is now housed in the Placement Office.

A WORKSHOP . . . to acquaint women business owners in the south suburbs with the Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners and how the business-women can qualify to be included on a national registry of women business owners, will be held at GSU, Tuesday, February 5, at 7 p.m. in Engbretson Hall. Representatives from the Small Business Administration and the National Association of Women Business Owners will review the application forms for the national registry. Two additional workshops will be held in the metropolitan Chicago area during February. All interested persons are encouraged to attend. Coffee will be supplied by the Women's Resource Center.

"ENERGY . . . and the Way We Live" is a special course being offered for credit by GSU. Designed for professionals who desire the ability to explain the energy problem and offer practical solutions, the course was developed by the GSU Energy Group and will be taught by James Hartley, a builder-contractor and president of the Northern Illinois Chapter of the International Solar Energy Society. Two sections of the course will be offered, beginning January 31, and February 2. For more information, contact Sharon Green, x2319.

GSUings . . . SUZANNE PRESCOTT (HLD) presenting a paper on aging at the gerontology meetings in Denver in late February . . . TULSI SARAL (HLD) announcing plans for the publication of a new quarterly journal entitled Communication Therapy, under his editorship beginning January, 1981. The publication will include: theoretical articles, research reports, experiential observations, case studies, book reviews, and news and commentaries on the role and scope of communication in the therapeutic process (especially in the interpersonal, intrapersonal, intercultural, and transpersonal contexts). Those interested in associating with the journal as consulting and/or contributing editors, and those interested in submitting manuscripts or news items, should contact Tulsi . . . The January 27th concert of the newly-organized GSU String Quartet, organized by FRANCOIS D'ALBERT (A&S) being featured on WMAQ-TV's (Channel 5) "Neighborhood Note," January 24.

NOTICE . . . The stairways located in the silos of the main building are posted for emergency use only. The doors to the stairways are electronically alarmed. Each time a silo entrance door is opened, an alarm sounds in the Department of Public Safety. The silo stairs are being used for casual exit from the building, usually during noontime and at the end of the normal work day. Such use presents a security hazard and should cease. Please heed signs on the silo doors. The silo stairs are to be used only in the event of an actual emergency, e.g., fire, to exit the building.
