CONGRATULATIONS . . . to Bob Press, who was elected president of the Faculty Senate at a special meeting held January 31. The special election was called following the resignation of Larry McClellan, who is the new pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Manteno. Senate members also adopted the Bylaws at that meeting.

WELCOME ABOARD . . . to the new editor and photographer of GSU's student newspaper, the Innovator. The new editor is Vicky Shoate, an undergraduate student who has had previous journalistic and editorial responsibilities with a community newsletter. The new staff photographer is Larry Lewis. They join feature editor Leslie Faison and reporter Lorene Roberts. A vacancy still exists for another reporter. Interested students should contact the editor or the Student Activities Office. The Innovator is published every other Tuesday, beginning February 12th. Deadline for submission of information is two Fridays preceding each publication date.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY . . . has the most commonly used 1979 Federal and Illinois income tax forms available free as long as the supply lasts. Informational publications for preparing 1979 Federal and Illinois tax forms are available for use in the Library or to be copied for outside use. Inquire at the Reference Desk.

CLASSICAL GUITARIST TO PERFORM . . . Oscar Ghiglia, acclaimed by some critics to be the successor to Andre Segovia as the world's greatest classical guitarist, will be presented in concert in GSU's Music Recital Hall, Friday, February 15, at 8 p.m. Ghiglia, artist in residence at the famous Aspen (Colorado) Festival, is a former student of and assistant to Segovia. Part of the Classical Music Showcase Series sponsored by the Office of Student Activities, the performance is free to GSU students. Tickets are $2 for the general public and $1 for GSU faculty, staff and Alumni Association members and senior citizens.

REMEMBER . . . In observance of Abraham Lincoln's birthday, Tuesday, February 12, will be a holiday at GSU.

CONGRATULATIONS . . . to those who received their Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (C.P.R.) certification at GSU this month: Jim Buckenmyer, BPA; Jean Dekker, Placement; Cheri Gaspero, FA; Deborah Gregory; Jacquie Hemingway, Admissions; Hank Huitt, BO; Marilyn Jansen, CLA; David Suddick, Student Development; Charlotte Taylor, IR&P; and Pam Zenner, CLA. The University's Health Services unit sponsors the C.P.R. classes, which are open to the entire GSU community and consist of two three-hour sessions. The next class is planned for April. To sign up, contact Marcy Smith, x2168 or 2141.

SPRINGTIME MUSICAL AUDITIONS . . . The GSU Theatre will continue to hold auditions during February for the spring musical production "An Evening of Theatre: Broadway Musicals and Las Vegas Reflections." Tryouts for singers, dancers, actors, and instrumentalists will be held as follows: Feb. 11, 13, 14 and 15, 2-4 p.m. and 6-9 p.m.; Feb. 12, 2-4 p.m., Feb. 9, and 16, 9 a.m.-noon; and Feb. 10, and 17, 2-5 p.m. Those wishing to audition should bring their own music and routines. Accompanists will be available in the Theatre. Volunteers are also needed to work in other technical phases of theatre production. The production will be directed by Alfonso Sherman, who can be contacted after 6 p.m., at x2560 or 672-6095.

VISIT THE VISUAL ARTS GALLERY . . . and view Arlene Ashack's graduate art exhibit of drawings and paintings, Monday-Thursday, February 11-14, 10:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. The Gallery is located in the A&S Lounge.
