GSU-SPONSORED SURVEY . . .Governors State University is sponsoring a survey during March to determine the educational needs and preferences of adult residents of the Southern Greater Chicago area. The survey is being financed by a $15,000 grant under the Higher Education Cooperation Act and is under the direction of Jay Kahn of GSU's Office of Institutional Research and Planning. Personnel from five community colleges--Prairie State, Thornton, Moraine Valley, Joliet, and Kankakee--will gather the information by telephoning hundreds of adults in each of their districts. The information obtained will serve as a guide to GSU and the community colleges in planning courses, programs and other activities to help meet the educational needs of the citizens of the southern suburbs.

GSU COMPOSERS CONCERT . . . Music as traditional as a Mozart quintet and as modern as an electronic tape composition will be heard at the Composers Concert which will be presented by GSU's Division of Fine and Performing Arts at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, March 13, in the Music Recital Hall. The concert is free and the public is invited.

COMING EVENT . . . Seven GSU music faculty members will present a concert, Friday, March 21, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall.

TOM CHAPIN TO APPEAR . . . Singer-guitarist Tom Chapin, award-winning television performer, will appear in concert in the GSU Music Recital Hall, Friday, March 7, at 8 p.m. The entertainer has appeared on college campuses and in nightclubs throughout the nation. He has won Emmy and Peabody awards as host of the children's TV program "Make a Wish." The concert is free to GSU students. Admission for the general public is $2, and $1 for GSU faculty, staff, and Alumni Association members and senior citizens.

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE . . . The Illinois State Department of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education is offering summer internships to business students majoring in the areas of accounting, finance, computer science, and marketing. A $1,000 per month stipend will be awarded to each intern in addition to a limited travel allowance. The application deadline is March 29, 1980. Credit may be obtained through the Cooperative Education Program at GSU. Interested students should contact Joyce Kennedy, x2527.

SEE SUSAN B. ANTHONY . . . as portrayed by Barbara Rowe of Elmhurst, at 2:30 p.m. in Engbretson Hall, Saturday, March 1, in celebration of National Women's History Week.

BEST WISHES TO . . . Jean Kalwa, a GSU alumna who is undergoing surgery this week after having suffered two strokes since January 12th. A recipient of a Danforth Scholarship, she is in the doctoral program in American Studies at the University of Michigan. GSUers who would like to wish her well can send cards to: Jean Kalwa, 9 West - Room 611, University Hospital, 1405 East Ann Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109. By telephone, she can be contacted at (313) 763-5331.

PUBLISHED . . . PETER COLBY and PAUL GREEN (both of BPA) are the authors of an article on "Voting Trends in Suburban Chicago" which has recently been published in the Proceedings of the 1979 Conference - The Small City and Regional Community, Volume 2.

VISIT THE VISUAL ARTS GALLERY . . . and view Janet Brykcynski's graduate art exhibit in printmaking, Mondays-Thursdays, March 3-14, 10:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

GSUings . . . RALPH WINSTON (BPA) attending the public hearing on the Proposed Standards for Accreditation of Accounting Programs held in Dallas, Texas, February 14-15 . . . HECTOR ORTIZ (CS & E) emceeding the 20th anniversary dinner of the M.M. Society, which deals exclusively with recreational programs for children, especially the handicapped . . . ROBERTA BEAR (HLD) participating as a panelist at the Annual Teachers' In-Service at the Jewish Community Centers of Chicago, February 12 . . . ALFONSO SHERMAN (CAS) moderating the Pro and Con Screening Board forum entitled "The Image of Black Men in Films" at the Goodman Theatre, February 18 . . . MICHAEL COHEN (BPA) guest speaking at the recent dinner-program sponsored by the Peotone Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Peotone Historical Society. The theme of the evening was historical preservation of local architecture . . .
