INFORMATION . . . about employment opportunities in a wide variety of businesses will be available free to the public at GSU's Business-Industry Career Fair, Monday, March 24, 1 p.m. - 6 p.m. Representatives of 50-60 companies throughout the Chicago area will be on hand to answer questions.

CONTEMPORARY LECTURE FORUM . . . Joseph Sorrentino, attorney at law and Judge Pro Tem in Los Angeles, California, will be on the GSU campus for the Contemporary Lecture Forum at 8 p.m., Friday, March 28, in Eng-bretson Hall. Sorrentino has been called one of the most stirring speakers on the American scene today. F. Lee Bailey has called him the "best juvenile judge in the world." Tickets for the Forum are available from the Student Activities Office.

THIRD WORLD EXCHANGE . . . More than 400 scholars, students and laypersons from around the world will explore the theme,
"Global Inequality: Implications for the 1980s and Beyond," at GSU's 6th annual Third World Conference at Chicago's Conrad Hilton Hotel, March 26-29. For information on conference fees and other details, contact one of the conference coordinators:
Roger Oden, x2429; Ndiva Kofele-Kale, x2251; and Anthony Wei, x2530. Advance registration is advised.

GSU MUSIC FACULTY CONCERT . . . Several members of the music faculty at GSU will perform in concert as part of the University's Classical Music Showcase series, Friday, March 21, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. Featuring both vocal and instrumental selections, the program will spotlight the talents of pianist Erna Salm, bass violinist Frederick Kuester, marimbist Patrick Arnold, soprano Susan Shreiner, pianist Marilyn Bourgeois, violinist Francois D'Albert, cellist Vlastimil Dvorak, and bass-baritone Rudolf Strukoff.
Strukoff will be accompanied by his wife, Donna Strukoff, a community professor of piano at GSU. Admission is $2 for the general public, and $1 for GSU faculty, staff, Alumni Association members, and senior citizens.
GSU students will be admitted free.

MONEY MATTERS . . . Beginning Wednesday, April 16, and continuing for five consecutive Wednesdays, Jennie Suttle, money management counselor, will address various issues related to money management. The topics are: "Basic Budget Planning,"
"Assets and Liabilities," "What are You Worth," "The In's and Out's of Credit," "Savings, Interest, and Insurance," and "Buying a Car." There is no fee but advance registration is required. Sessions will take place at 7:30 p.m. in GSU's Engbretson Hall. Coffee will be served.
For advance registration, call the Women's Resource Center, x2435.

NOTICE . . . Due to the sudden illness of Alfonso Sherman, former Dean of GSU's College of Cultural Studies and director of the spring theatre production, the GSU Theatre regretfully announces the cancellation of his musical currently in production. Plans are underway to schedule a replacement production in the May 16-17, and 23-24, performance dates. Announcement of the new production should be made by Monday, March 24. The GSU Theatre anticipates scheduling a musical production under Sherman's direction during the Fall Trimester. Those wishing to send cards should address them to: Dr. Alfonso Sherman, Baumgarten Pavilion, Room 307, Michael Reese Hospital, 2939 South Cottage Grove, Chicago, Illinois 60616.

PUBLISHED . . . PETER COLBY (BPA) has co-authored an article with Luis Salces which is featured in the February, 1980 issue of Illinois Issues. The article is entitled "Mañana Will Be Better: Spanish-American Politics in Chicago." The article was quoted in the February 21st issue of the Chicago Tribune. . . A literary analysis of Edwin O'Connor, written by HUGH RANK (CAS) and originally published in the New England Quarterly, has been selected to be reprinted in the forthcoming anthology, Contemporary Literary Criticism (1980). . . ELFIE HINTERKOPF (HLD) has had her paper on "Teaching Mental Patients to Use Client-Centered and Experiential Therapeutic Skills with Each Other" accepted by Psychotherapy: Theory, Research and Practice. Presently, this journal is only accepting about three per cent of all papers submitted.

WOULD YOU LIKE . . . to spend the cocktail hour at Argonne National Lab with some of the country's most influential energy planners, treat yourself to a prime rib dinner with red wine, and hear and see a talk and slide show by Dr. Allan Evans, an engineer who recently returned from China? The total package, including transportation from GSU's Hantack House, is brought to you by the GSU Energy Group for only $10. The event is planned for Thursday, March 27. For details and reservations, contact Jackie Schimke, x2181.

"CHILDREN AND DIVORCE" . . . will be the topic of discussion at the April 3rd Women's Resource Center Brown Bag Lunch at 12 noon in Room E1106. Jean Livingston, Harriet Minkin and Cecile Cliffer will present preliminary results of a research study they are conducting involving the children of 50 recently-divorced couples. The public is invited to attend. Coffee will be provided. For more information, contact GSU's Women's Resource Center, x2435.

GSUings . . . MARIAN MARZYNSKI (CAS) visiting several California college campuses during his recent research trip. He presented lectures/screenings to film students at the University of California, San Diego and at the University of California, Santa Barbara. He also met with film instructors and students at Stanford University and the University of California, Berkeley . . . LOU MULE' (CAS) speaking to the Sauk Trail Rose Society recently about prairie wildflowers of the Chicago Region . . . SUE BUCKENMYER (GSU Women's Club) being named co-recipient of the Citizen of the Year Award by the Village of Richton Park at its first Appreciation Dinner, Friday, March 14 . . . YOUNG KIM (HLD) chairing a panel on "Communication Competence and Acculturation of Immigrants: A Critical Intercultural Issue for the 1980's" at the annual conference of the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research (SIETAR), March 13-14, in Mt. Pocono, Pa. She also presented a paper on "Communication Competence and Immigrant Acculturation: An Outline for Designing a Communication Training Program" . . . The concern of the GSU community is with ALFONSO SHERMAN (CAS) undergoing surgery at Michael Reese Hospital, Thursday, March 20 . . . JEAN DEKKER (PLCMT) saying "Thanks to everyone for the concern, cards, notes and phone calls" while she was hospitalized with a broken ankle. She will be recuperating at home during the next 2-3 weeks.

GLOWING GRAD . . . Alumna Donna (Chambers) Braden, CCS '73, has joined S.R. Holland, Inc., an executive search firm which specializes in placing women in management positions. Donna's daughter, Elizabeth Chambers, a "grad" of GSU's Creative Dramatics Program, is now wardrobe mistress at McCormick Playhouse in addition to her freshman pre-law studies at Roosevelt University.
